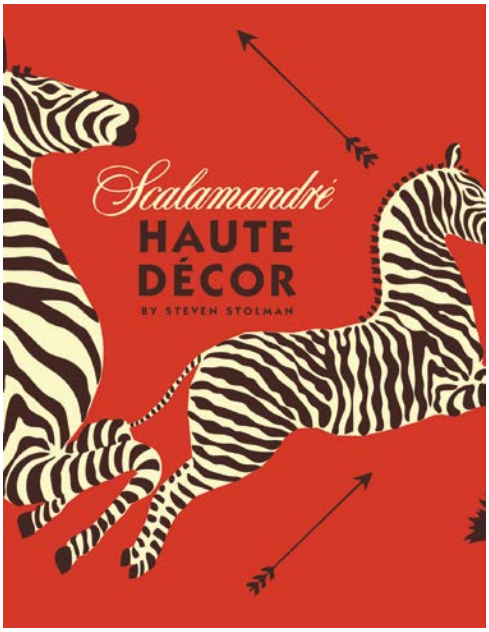
Scalamandré:
the destination for fine design and all things beautiful



A formidable textiles house and decorative tastemaker for more than 80 years in the world of high-end interior design, Scalamandré is revered for its comprehensive offerings of fabrics, wallcoverings and trims available to-the-trade through design centers across the United States, Europe, and Asia. The Scalamandré touch has also been applied to compelling collections of china, crystal, flatware and gifts along with ultra-luxury bedding and related decorative accessories showcased in fine stores worldwide.

Scalamandré: Haute Décor celebrates the world of Scalamandré as seen through the eyes of the international design elite while paying homage to the people, places and events that contributed to the nearly cinematic Scalamandré story. All those who appreciate and cultivate beauty in their lives will enjoy this insider's look at an interior design treasure.

Places of pure beauty and simplicity

A well-designed Swedish room, whether an antique-filled country home or a contemporary industrial loft space, has a calm and feel-good quality that literally permeates the atmosphere. See how some of the most authentic advocates of Swedish design are using these ideas in their own homes, places of pure beauty and simplicity. The fundamental concepts of Swedish design are in full play here and are important qualities to incorporate into a home—those of functionality, quality of materials, light, preservation, art, eclecticism, color, sense of place and a deep reverence for nature.

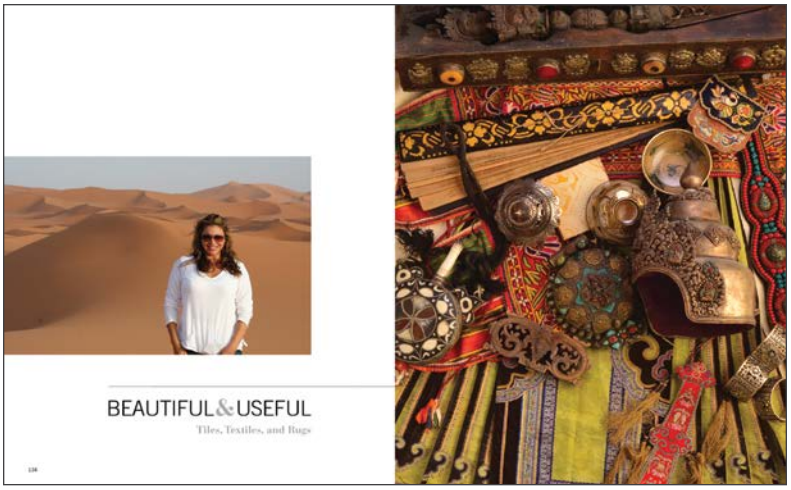
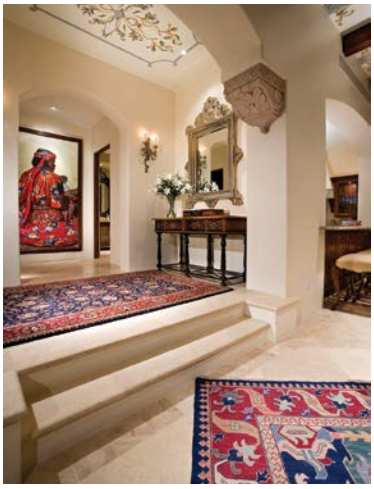
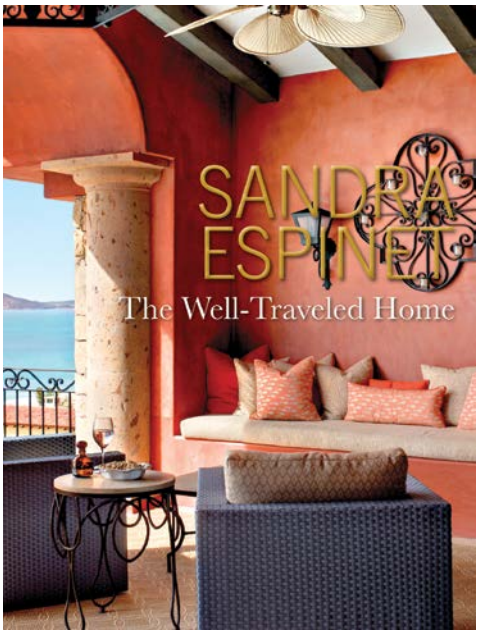
RHONDA ELEISH and EDIE VAN BREEMS are the founders of Eleish van Breems Ltd., a company whose approach to design stems from a modern application and interpretation of historic Scandinavian interiors and form. Their design work has been featured in House Beautiful, Elle Decor, Veranda, Glamour, Country Living, Gods & Goddar, and the New York Times, among others. Both live with their families in southwest Connecticut and travel extensively in Scandinavia, calling Stockholm their home away from home.



BEAUTIFUL & USEFUL
Tiles, Textiles, and Rugs



Luxury homes with international panache



"The essence of my interior design work seeks to reflect the evolving interplay of the domestic and the international, while remaining true to my intent to create alluring family living spaces and home environments."

Sandra Espinet is a lifelong gypsy whose extensive world travels produce "finds" of exquisitely wrought artisanal furniture, dramatic artworks and exotic accessories that are put to beautiful use in interiors. Blending the fabulous objects culled from particular corners of the globe is a delicate art form. Espinet is a mix-master of eclectic convergence, a specialist in the fearless melding of exotic elements with traditional furnishings into stylish and unforgettable presentations of comfort and calm, exhilaration and extravagance.

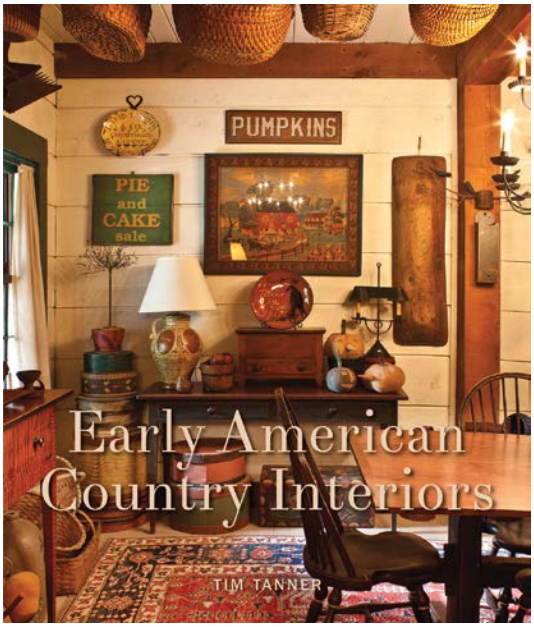
Inviting designs that have stood the test of time



An idea book for designing beautiful interiors that embody the essence of early American country style—a sense of warmth, comfort, and familiarity. As an advocate that something well designed will stand the test of time, author Tim Tanner has coupled basic design principles with a wealth of examples using wonderful old objects and materials, illuminating effective design ideas for bedrooms, bathrooms, kitchens, living rooms, dining rooms, pantries, and other spaces.

Featured homes are from Maine, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, Ohio, Michigan, Illinois, Kentucky, Virginia, West Virginia, Idaho, and Utah.

Ideas, advice, and how-to for one of the hottest wedding styles

A barn is a magical place for a wedding. Steeped in history and evoking the simplicity of a place that time has forgotten, the classic American barn has been an irresistible subject for artists, poets, and city folk alike. In Barn Weddings, Maggie Lord offers ideas and advice on how to create a barn wedding, including information on the different styles and décor as well as tips from the pros for making the day a special one to remember. Part indoor, part outdoor, but all beauty, history and romance, barn weddings are as practical as they are rife with opportunity for charm and creativity.

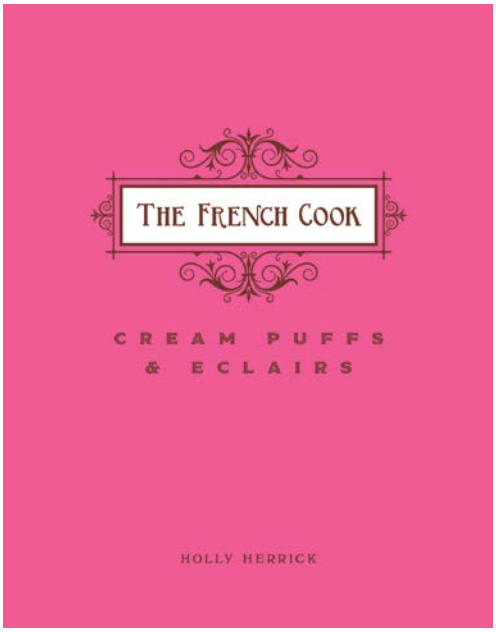
The second book in
The French Cook series



Sweet and savory • hot and cold • ice creamed and sauced • puffed, elongated or shaped in a ring—pâte à choux is the quintessential French pastry. Blend cheese and herbs into the dough to bake crisp little rings for appetizers. Fill choux puffs with cheese and smoked salmon or roast beef and horseradish cream—anything goes. On the other side, a bit of sugar turns choux into a pastry for cream-filled eclairs, towering croquembouche, cream puffs, and more. Fried choux becomes a beignet.

Easy-to-follow instructions teach the basic techniques. Recipes for delectable fillings—from savory to sweet—these glorious creams and puddings with sauces and glazes aplenty inspire infinite variety.

The ultra-fresh cooking of the "other" French cuisine

Niçoise cooking from the region of Nice and surrounding countryside is vibrant and healthy, with an emphasis on vegetables and fish. It is honest, simple and frugal, based on what is available from the nearby land and the sea. It is designed with olive oil rather than butter and cream; it is light rather than bathed in rich sauces. There is less beef and more lamb, pork, wild game, duck and chicken. It is dependent on fresh, locally sourced produce. Due to its proximity to Italy, the dishes of Nice and environs are intermingled in the most ideal culinary match of Italian and French traditions. The resulting cuisine Niçoise springs from that marriage—with a strong dash of its own unique dishes not found anywhere else in France.

From easy weeknight meals to more elaborate Sunday dinners, learn the recipes and ultra-fresh cooking of the "other" French cuisine.

Easy meals and creative recipes, tips, and techniques

Meals for two have never been so easy or delicious. Using nothing more than a slow cooker for heat and a few common kitchen helpers—like foil, mini loaf pans, ramekins, a metal jar ring, a glass baking dish, plastic liners, and a stick blender—Cynthia Graubart turns the 3½-quart slow cooker into a multi-use cooking convenience. Slow Cooking for Two includes basic instructions and creative methods for 100 recipes, plus tips and techniques.

Santa, get yer spurs on Christmas is coming and a freezing-cold Santa and Mrs. Claus think about looking for a warmer second location for setting up the toy shop next year. As they snuggle under the covers that night, they take a "dream" tour of Texas, viewing its fabulous offerings, cities, landscapes, college teams, the arts, taste-tempting cuisine, and other attractions of the Lone Star state.

A chic stocking stuffer for those who love NY

Santa's pre-Christmas jitters start just before Thanksgiving, and Mrs. Claus knows just what he needs to boost his holiday spirit—a trip to fabulous NYC for a little R&R (and a little shopping for her). They're checking out chic stores when what should happen but the Macy's parade official spots this Santa on the street and convinces him to "substitute" for the "substitute" Santa in the parade.

> Santa laughed to himself—how surprised they would be
> If they knew the REAL SANTA was the one they would see!

The cheering of the children boosts Santa's confidence for another year, and later that night, Mr. C borrows the parade sleigh to take a flight over all the boroughs of the city.

Nativities from around the world in a dazzling variety of styles

Nearly one hundred nativities from all over the world—most of which have never before appeared in any book—are collected here. Artisans from locales as diverse as the Czech Republic, Guyana, Burkina Faso, and Bangladesh are represented. There are nativities made with materials ranging from hand-carved wood, blown glass, and wool, to more unique materials such as salt dough, dried maguey cactus, and recycled bicycle parts. The artistry, ingenuity, and diversity of these creations are greatly prized by thousands of nativity collectors worldwide, many of whom have graciously allowed pieces from their own collections to be photographed for this book.

A collection of one of the hottest fashion accessories

Emmerling and Arndt team up for their fifth book celebrating the art of things people love to collect. Here they bring us fabulous belt buckles from vintage collectibles, trophy buckles, beaded and bejeweled varieties, ranger sets, and classy contemporary designs, all celebrating the fascination with beautiful buckle art. Cowboys and Indians, arrows, horses and longhorns aplenty, sweet hearts, and plenty of other icons decorate these fashionable pieces. And it wouldn't be complete without a nod to the artists who created them.

A second volume of popular Spanish words and phrases

This second volume of Spanish terms will help you more easily communicate with native Spanish speakers at home or abroad. Just follow the illustrated prompts and read the English words out loud. Soon you'll be speaking simple Spanish words and phrases well enough to be understood—such as, Is everybody happy? (Ace Tom Owes Cone 10 Toes?); or, What do you want? (Kay Key Ed Ace?).

The simple icons are easy to follow and this pocket-sized guide is easy to carry with you. It will give you the basic words and phrases you need either while traveling or here at home—asking directions, ordering food at a restaurant, shopping. And most of all . . . it's just plain fun!

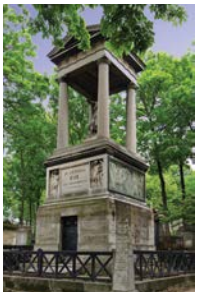
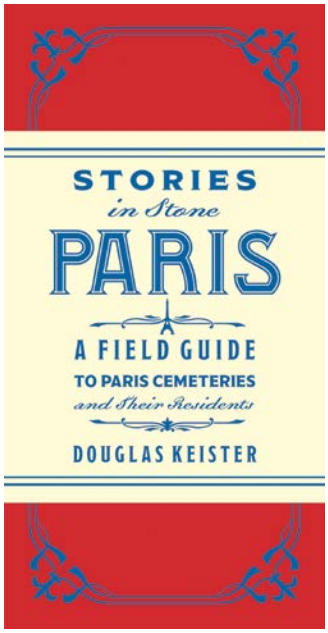
The intrigue of death in the City of Love





Paris, city of lights, city of love, city of magic, city of art, city of death. Around twelve million people call the Paris metropolitan area home, and millions more call it their permanent home, including upwards of seven million in the catacombs in the Montparnasse district.

The cemeteries and monuments in Stories in Stone Paris cut across a wide swath of the last two hundred years of Paris history. With this field guide in hand, discover the funerary architecture, memorials and symbolism within twenty-eight of Paris' notable resting places, including GPS coordinates for many gravesites.

Experience Teton country from the eyes of a grand visionary

Harrison R. Crandall was the first official photographer of Grand Teton National Park. In addition to his marvelous iconic landscape photos of Teton country, many of which were meticulously hand colored with a painter's eye, many of his original color paintings, drawings, and illustrations are featured. With a wealth of archival photographs, many of which have never been published before, this book is both a visual treat for the eyes as well as an authoritative chronicle of Harrison Crandall's life and work.

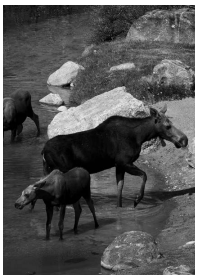
A visual autobiography and portfolio of one of the West's famous trial attorneys



The Lost Frontier features a generous and dazzling collection of the author's own paintings and photographs, vividly embellishing his story of growing up in the Depression and his evolution as an attorney and advocate for the disenfranchised. Most importantly, it uniquely documents his life in and relationship with his beloved state of Wyoming. With an unabashedly iconoclastic view of how things are and how they should be, these images and words could only have been created by Gerry Spence.

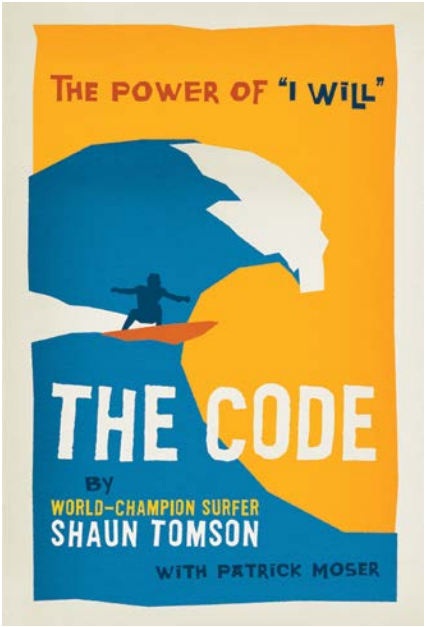
How to convert the power of "I Will" into a life-changing mantra



The twelve stories in this book, taken from Shaun Tomson's own life experiences in and out of the surfing world, offer the simple message—I Will—as a model to face life's challenges and help you achieve your goals. All you need is to be encouraged to find your voice and commit yourself to positive values. The stories resonate with positivity and hope for the future, and are infused with the belief that even in the darkest time, light shines ahead to show you the way forward.

$9.99 U.S. • Paperback
4 x 6 in, 240 Pages
Illustrations Throughout, Ages 8 and Up
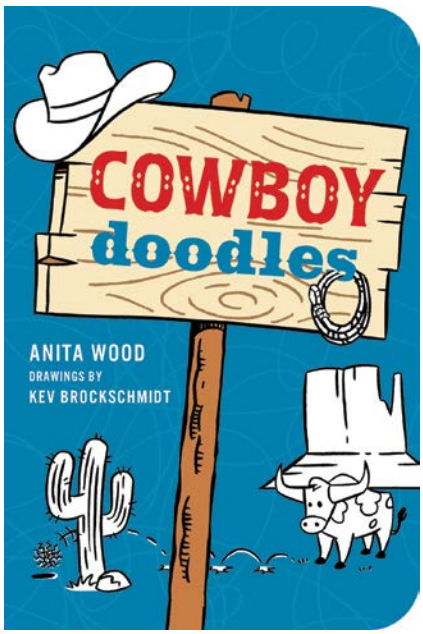
Pub Date: July, 978-1-4236-3457-7

Everybody loves critters—the big cats at the zoo, the elephants at the circus, the talking animals in your favorite children's story, and especially your own beloved pet kitty, mutt, parakeet, hamster, or iguana. Here's your chance to doodle your very own menagerie of animals, real and imagined, with prompts that are guaranteed to amuse, inform, and entertain for hours on end.

Chris Sabatino is an illustrator and cartoonist who spends most of his waking hours doodling. He is the author and illustrator of Pocketdoodles for Boys, Monster Doodles for Kids, Superhero Doodles for Kids, and Dinosaur Doodles for Kids, as well as the illustrator of numerous other books. He lives in Canton, Massachusetts.



Cowboy Doodles

Anita Wood
Drawings by Kev Brockschmidt

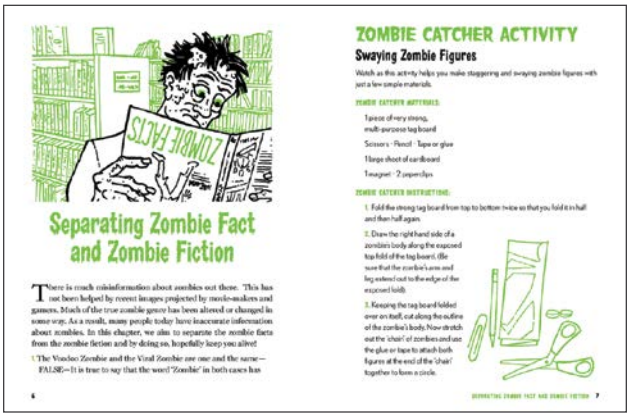
Children's Activity
$9.99 U.S. • Paperback
4 x 6 in, 240 Pages
Illustrations Throughout, Ages 8 and Up
Pub Date: July, 978-1-4236-3392-1

Bust out your boots and hat and saddle up your pony for this Western doodle adventure. Cowboys and cowgirls of all kinds will enjoy doodling about rodeos, outlaws, ranch work, tall-tale heroes, and life on the trail.

"Doodle Queen" Anita Wood is the author of Pocketdoodles for Girls, Pocketdoodles for Princesses, and Travel Doodles for Kids. Among her fondest memories are those she has of listening to her grandfather "Pappy" spin yarns of his adventures. Some were so wild you wondered where fact left off and fiction began! She makes her home in northern Utah.

Kev Brockschmidt is an illustrator working in games and children's educational materials. He currently lives near Seattle with his wife, Tami, and their four children.

20 experiments for the adventure-filled life of a zombie catcher



Would you like to become expert at spotting a zombie? Can you separate zombie fact from zombie fiction? Would you like to know if you suffer from kinemortophobia? If the answer to these questions is yes, then you have taken your first steps into the heart-pounding, nerve-jangling and adrenaline-filled life of a zombie catcher! When the Zombie Apocalypse arrives, you must be ready. You need to be able to preserve yourself, your family and the rest of mankind from the threat of the living dead. The Zombie Catcher's Handbook is filled with essential information that will not only keep you one step ahead of the putrid, undead . . . it might just keep you alive! If you have the nerve (and the stomach) to save the human race, then this is the book for you.

James Doyle lives and works in Belfast, Ireland. He has made it his mission to recruit other zombie catchers, to educate them about a world that requires great courage, great knowledge and great responsibility. He is a certified expert at identifying zombies and looking for the smallest telltale signs such as pale skin, bruising, bites, wounds, and the faint odors of decay and decomposition.

Andrew Brozyna is a book designer and illustrator living in Boulder County, Colorado. Most days he can be found practicing his zombie catcher skills so he can outwit and defeat the reanimated when the Zombie Apocalypse hits.

"Extreme fun for the kids and a visual delight for all. YUM!"

"The most delightful children's magazine."

—Tyler Brulé, Monocle

This issue celebrates all these wonderful inventors who never cease to amaze us with their incredible imaginations, and an interview with the Science Museum of London's resident inventor, Mark Champkins. It features award-winning inventor Dominic Wilcox's funniest inventions, and is filled to the brim with a dazzling array of games, activities, and beautifully illustrated stories.

"A unique and beautifully designed magazine for kids, totally unlike anything else on the market. The illustrations are beautiful enough to please the most finicky parent, and fun enough to engage children." —The Guardian

Cathy Olmedillas, formerly of 90s lifestyle bibles The Face and Arena, has more than fifteen years experience in the publishing industry. She launched the ground-breaking internationally acclaimed happy mag for kids, Anorak in 2006 when she couldn't find a fun, educational, and collectible magazine to read with her son. She lives in London.

Jay Wright, First Class Honours graduate of UWE Bristol, won third prize in the Macmillan Children's Book Prize. Clients include Dorling/Kindersley, Computer Arts Magazine, and Walker Books.

Nominated first of top three
"hot new mags" by Time Magazine

Pencils and paper at the ready! In this bigger edition (pagination increased to 68 pages), Anorak celebrates the art of writing. It delves into history to discover the oldest alphabet in the world, gives a lesson in calligraphy ("write like a medieval monk"), interviews Dr. Finkel (curator at The British Museum) about his collection of diaries, and finds out more about graphology. It also carries stories about a butterfly who tries to do a good deed, a profile about Sally the Smile, a diary with the Cloudmobile inventor, and many pages of activities and games.

"Busting with ideas and inspiration, and urging its young readers to tap into their own imaginations." —Telegraph

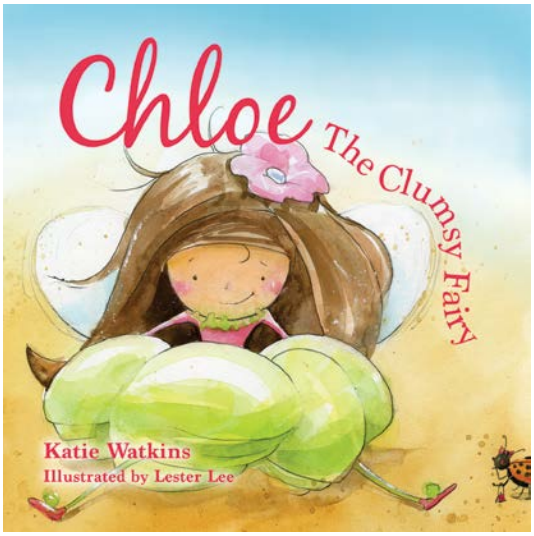
The charming story and beautiful illustrations bring the fairy world to life



Chloe, the Clumsy Fairy

Katie Watkins
Illustrated by Lester Lee

Children's Picture Book
$17.99 U.S. • Hardcover
8 x 8 in, 32 Pages
Illustrations Throughout
Pub Date: August
978-1-937458-56-0

When Chloe, a fairy whose good-natured clumsiness is legendary among her fairy friends, dreams of Lily, a lonely girl across town, she sets off on an adventure to help. Lily has just moved to a new school where she struggles without any friends and with the added difficulty of dealing with Nick, the class bully, who seems to have singled her out. Chloe joins Lily at school and tries to help her make new friends. Along the way, Chloe realizes Nick is not a bully at all but instead is just as lonely as Lily. Chloe uses her clumsiness to her advantage as she devises a messy scheme to help Lily find friendship.

Chloe, the Clumsy Fairy, is written with delightful rhyme and rhythm and has been illustrated in watercolor by Lester Lee. The charming story combined with beautiful illustrations bring the fairy world to life with vibrant detail.

Chloe is one of seven Summermeadow fairy dolls coming this fall in stores and online.

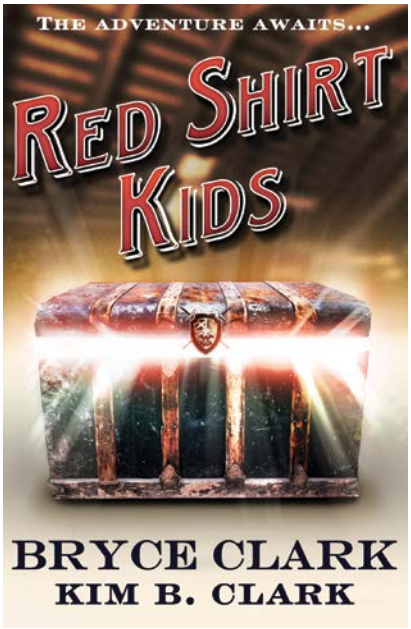
Sixth-graders Mike and Amy must learn to use their special powers to save other children



Mike and Amy Smith are nervous about moving from their nice house in Boston to a dilapidated old mansion in Falton, New Hampshire. They know they'll have to start the sixth and seventh grade not knowing anyone, and their new house is just plain creepy.

While searching their dusty attic, Mike and Amy uncover an old wooden chest with a mysterious lock. Inside, they find magical red shirts that give them special powers. Together with a new friend, Sam, Mike and Amy must figure out how to harness their newfound gifts while keeping them secret from their parents. As their powers grow, they begin a search for two kids who had gone missing in the summer, pitting them against a powerful adversary with mystical powers of his own. Will Mike and Amy be able to unlock the ancient mystery of the shirts? And will they be able to find the missing children before it is too late?

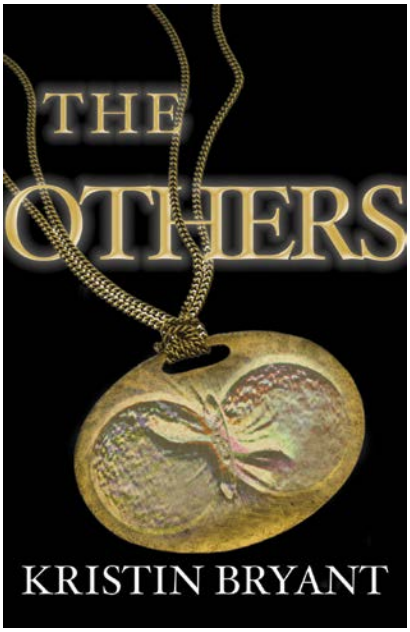
A dangerous adventure to save a distant world



Ryen is just a normal guy trying to do his job. Unfortunately, that job includes trying to save his distant world on the brink of disaster.

Ryen is on a mission to Earth to find the answers to his distant world's most critical questions. While searching the Yucatan Peninsula for a mythic figure—a savior—who would live a perfect life and ultimately die to save their souls, Ryen meets Savannah, a beautiful woman hiding a painful past. On their dangerous adventures together through the untamed jungles of Mexico, he can't help but fall in love with her. As his time runs out, Ryen must decide if he is willing to give up everything he has ever known and loved to stay on Earth with Savannah.

The Masters, a powerful clan of corrupt leaders, are plotting to take back Earth, the sacred planet, from the humans. Ryen and Savannah are thrust into the middle of The Masters' plot.

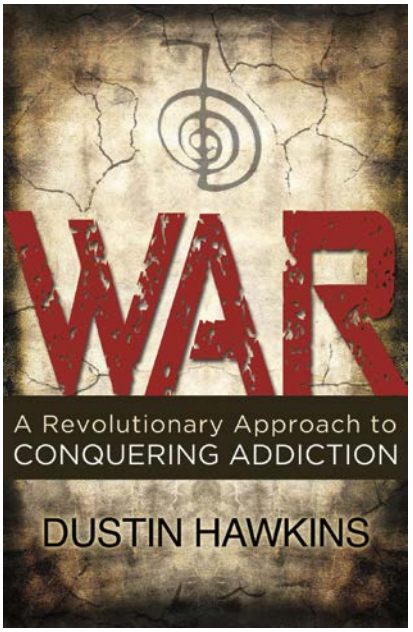
A revolutionary approach to conquering addiction



In the throes of his battle with drug addiction, Houston Astros baseball player Dustin Hawkins realized he needed more than rehab to get sober. After several failed attempts in clinical drug rehabilitation programs, Dustin developed his own unique recovery plan—a combination of mental, spiritual, and physical steps toward sobriety and balance. From his experience, Dustin created Workout Addiction Recovery, or WAR, a mind-body-soul educational system that attacks addiction on every front. Armed with the fundamentals of WAR, Dustin has been clean for five years. He and his organization have helped many individuals successfully rescue themselves from the abyss of drugs, alcohol, and other types of dependency.

Section one of WAR educates readers about drugs and their effects. Section two provides a step-by-step guide for recovery using workouts, healthy eating, and spirituality as the fundamental building blocks of a healthy, addiction-free life.

Retail Distribution Center Policy

Gibbs Smith offers a 49% discount for orders shipped to a customer's Retail Distribution Center (RDC). To qualify, the RDC must ship to multiple retail outlets and must have a truck-height loading and unloading dock capable of receiving pallet quantities. The RDC must also order a minimum of 10 cartons and be in good credit standing. All RDC discounts must be preapproved by the Publisher. The Publisher will not accept noncompliance chargebacks or fees for orders receiving the RDC discount.

Shipping Policy

Shipments under 200 pounds will be sent via UPS or equivalent. Shipments over 200 pounds will be sent via truck.

Returns Policy

Returns should be sent to 570 North Sportsplex Drive, Kaysville, Utah 84037. Gibbs Smith permits returns for credit only. Cash refunds will not be issued for unused credits. All books must be in print and in saleable condition. Returns will be credited at the average earned discount unless invoice information is provided. All shipments of returns must be prepaid by the customer. Return UPS shipping charges will be credited for defective books and misshipments.

Pubnet®

Gibbs Smith is now a member of Pubnet®. Our SAN number is 2019906. If you are a member, you can now place your order directly through Pubnet® or any Pubnet®-encoded software. Please contact Cortney Nessen, Customer Service Manager, to establish your account with Gibbs Smith.

Library and School Orders

All library and school orders will earn a 20% discount. Books are shipped F.O.B. Kaysville, Utah.

Examination Copies

Examination copies are available at a 50% discount. Add $5.00 per book for UPS postage and handling.

Credit Policy

Customers without established accounts should furnish three credit references and allow time for a thorough credit check. (Prepayment may be requested for a first order.) Sorry, no CODs.

1. Terms: Please call for terms.
2. Accounts outstanding after 60 days will be put on hold.
3. Accounts outstanding after 90 days will be referred for collection, putting the account on a cash-only basis thereafter. To reinstate credit, all past due balances must be paid in full, along with the collection fee.
