Daniel Hoyer

VIETNAMESE CUISINE HAS DEVELOPED OVER THOUSANDS OF YEARS with countless influences from other cultures. Full of authentic recipes, Culinary Vietnam teaches how the aspects of flavor, aroma, texture, color, contrast, balance, and even the sound a food makes should be taken into consideration in the planning of a Vietnamese meal. Author Daniel Hoyer opens the door into the world of Vietnamese cooking methods and theories, as well as to the background of the cuisine, and gives some historical and cultural tidbits, all while showing just the breadth of this simple, agriculturally based cuisine.

Chef Daniel Hoyer is the author of Culinary Mexico, Fiesta on the Grill, Tamales, and Mayan Cuisine: Recipes from the Yucatan Region. He is a leader of gastronomic adventure tours in Mexico and Southeast Asia through his company, Well-Eaten Path Chef Tours, www.welleatenpath.com, and teaches at The Santa Fe School of Cooking, where he has been an instructor for more than thirteen years. He lives near Taos, New Mexico.

SITTING BULL

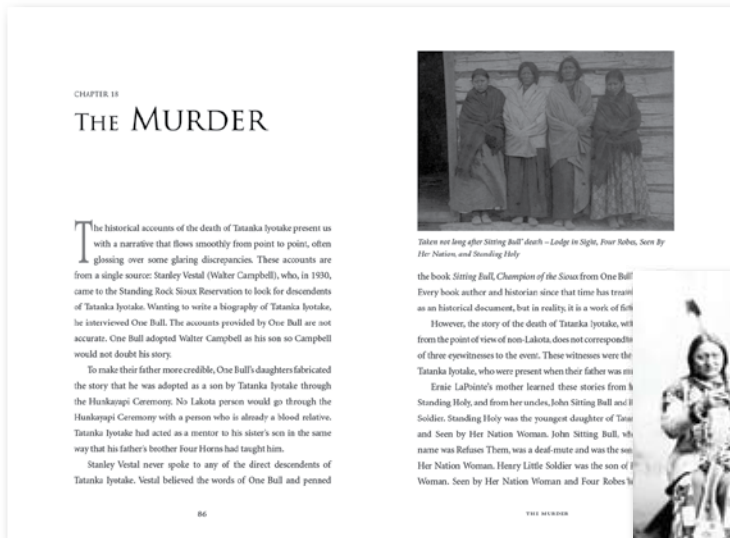

HIS LIFE AND LEGACY

Ernie LaPointe, Great-Grandson of Sitting Bull

ERNIE LAPOINTE IS THE GREAT-GRANDSON of the famous Hunkpapa Lakota chief, and he presents the family tales and memories told to him about his great-grandfather. In many ways the oral history differs from what has become the standard and widely accepted biography of Sitting Bull. LaPointe explains the discrepancies, how they occurred, and why he wants to tell his story of Tatanka Iyotake.

Ernie LaPointe, a great-grandson of Sitting Bull, was born on the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation in South Dakota. He is a Sundancer and lives the traditional way of the Lakota and follows the rules of the sacred pipe. He lives in South Dakota.

The only book on Sitting Bull written by a lineal descendant

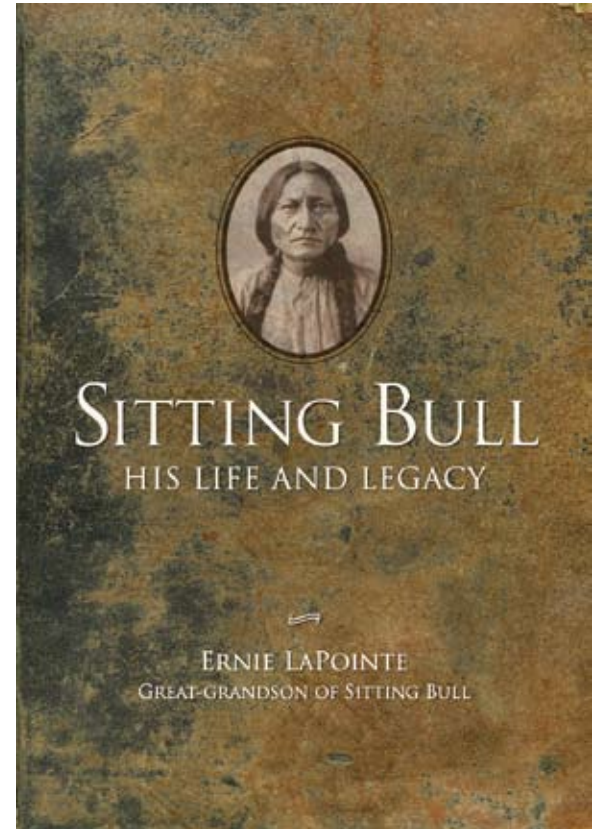

Taken not long after Sitting Bull's death - Lodge in Sight, Four Robes, Seen by Her Nation, and Standing Holy

the book Sitting Bull, Champion of the Sioux from One Bull.

Every book author and historian since that time has treated it as an historical document, but in reality it is a work of fiction.

However, the story of the death of Tatanka Iyotake, told from the point of view of non-Lakota, does not correspond to those eyewitnesses to the event. These witnesses were the Tatanka Iyotake, who were present when their father was murdered.

Ernie LaPointe's mother learned these stories from her Standing Holy, and from her uncles, John Sitting Bull and Bill Soldier. Standing Holy was the youngest daughter of Tatanka Iyotake and Seen by Her Nation Woman. John Sitting Bull, whose name was Refuses Them, was a deaf-mute and was the son of Her Nation Woman, Henry Little Soldier, who was the son of Her Nation Woman, Henry Little Soldier, who was the son of Her Nation Woman, Henry Little Soldier and Four Robes.
