9 Months of Wonder

A Monthly Guide and Journal Prompts for the Conscious Mother-to-Be

by Rachel Garahan

Pregnancy is a time like no other, a season of limbo: the baby is here but not here. Mothers-to-be enter a dreamy phase between being and becoming, suspended in wonder with amazement of what we are creating, and curiosity for who we are carrying. We can get so caught up in the new life growing within us—distracted with facts and logistics—that we might easily forget to acknowledge the other transformation taking place as well: the redefining of our own identity.

With a spare, modern design and gorgeous illustration, 9 Months of Wonder is designed to help you to document the liminal space between here and there while softening into the season you're in. In these journal pages, you'll find a safe place to record and process your experiences, reflect on the ups and downs, move through fears, and honor the metamorphosis taking place in you as you give birth to the new life of your child and the new parts of yourself.

Author Bio

Based on the success of our bestselling 1000 piece Frank Lloyd Wright foil puzzles, we are introducing Wrights Hillside Curtain design as a foiled 1500 piece puzzle.

When the Hillside Theater at Frank Lloyd Wright's Taliesin home burned in 1952, the main stage curtain created in 1932 was lost. During the 1952 reconstruction of the theater at Hillside, Wright drew a new curtain design portraying the rural landscape of Wisconsin's Wyoming Valley, with Taliesin overlooking the Wisconsin River as it flows past the barns and fields. Hand made by the Taliesin Fellowship, the curtain was presented to Wright on his eighty-ninth birthday in 1956. The final product is a quilt design incorporating simple rectangular and triangular felt and lame forms and various types of yarn and cording.

Frank Lloyd Wright Imperial Hotel 500 Piece Book Puzzle

Author Bio

Designed between 1912-1922, the Imperial Hotel put Frank Lloyd Wright on the map as a nascent global architect.

The Hotel immediately became an important landmark when it survived the great Kanto earthquake the first day the hotel opened its doors in 1923. For decades the Hotel served as an architectural icon for the city of Tokyo until it was demolished in 1968. Fortunately, the main entrance and the Hotel lobby were preserved and reconstructed at the Museum Meiji-mura, an open-air architectural museum and theme park near Nagoya in Aichi prefecture, Japan. The designs on this puzzle are portions of a painted and partially carved Oya stone mural for the Imperial Hotel in Tokyo.

Wright saw Oya, a native igneous rock, used in Japan, was intrigued by its mottled quality, and had it carved in a multitude of patterns for the highly ornamented hotel.

Irrelevant Celebrity Trivia

by Brass Monkey and Galison

Trivia should be fun - not feel like a homework assignment. That's why we've filled ours with as many completely useless celebrity facts as we could find. . . and even better, you'll choose questions from a bunch of misleading categories. For example: You've Got Mail" - which are questions about celebrities who still use an AOL email account. Suitable for 2 to 8 (or more) players.

Includes 200 unique trivia cards specifically themed around celebrities.

Includes an instruction sheet with 3 different ways to play (depending on how smart you think you are).

Each two-sided card measures 3" wide by 2.8" tall (76mm x 71mm).

The box measures 3.5" square by 3" deep (89mm x 89mm x 76mm)

Author Bio

Brass Monkey Vintage-inspired Smartassery Created by Mike Sayre and Melanie Bridges way back in 2020, Brass Monkey was founded on the idea that there's a world between fine china and bobblehead dolls. That products can have personality, without becoming roadside souvenirs. So that's where you'll find them. . . making beautiful, well-designed items that just happen to have a sense of humor. Who said that art school and open-mic nights were such a waste of time? We're looking at you, dad

by Galison, by (artist) Jessica Poundstone

Sensing Colors 1000 Piece Puzzle features an image from Jessica Poundstone's Hyperspectral Sensing art series. Feelings, intuitions, visions and vibes are beautiful facts.

- 1000 pieces, Ribbon Cut
- Box: 8.5 x 10 x 2, 210 x 286 x 51mm
- Puzzle: 20 x 27", 508 X 686 mm
- Includes Puzzle Insert with Puzzle Image
- Puzzle greyboard contains 90% recycled paper. Packaging contains 70% recycled paper and is made responsibly from FSC-certified material. Printed with nontoxic inks.

Author Bio

Jessica Poundstone's work is informed by color sensation, minimalism, and experiential 'light and space' art movements. Her process of creation is very intuitive and her aim is to provide the viewer with a portal of sorts - a reminder of the endless possibilities that life has to offer and a visual invitation to get more deeply attuned to the joy, adventure, and wisdom that comes with exploring who we are and who we might become.

"I believe art is part of a self-care practice that changes the way we see, think & feel - and ultimately changes us."

Poundstone's work has been featured by Anthropologie, the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, Designlovesfest, and more. The artist currently lives and works in Portland, Oregon.

The Imitation Game

by Brass Monkey and Galison

Finally, an impersonation game that's even better if you're terrible at doing impressions. It doesn't matter if you're talented or not-anyone can win when it comes to imitating a dog that's about to throw up. Includes 300 game cards-each with a different prompt to mimic like 'Kermit the Frog' or 'A Gumball Machine'.

Includes pad of paper with 86 pages.

Box measures 5 x 2.8" tall x 3" deep (127mm x 71mm x 76mm).

From the author of Raising Good Humans comes the guided journal to help you stay centered, soothe stress and difficult emotions, and be the parent you truly want to be.

For busy, stressed-out parents, it's easy to lose sight of what matters the most—raising happy, conscientious, and compassionate kids who will grow up to make the world a better place. In the midst of rushing your child out the door in the morning, preparing meals, keeping house—not to mention working—you may feel bogged down, burned out, emotionally drained, and overstressed. The prompts in this journal will also help you identify and explore your values, and challenge the negative habits you've learned from your parents, so you can interact with and respond to your children in more skillful ways.

You'll find tons of guided writing prompts to help you:

- Keep your cool in the moment—even during those inevitable tantrums
- Untangle from the beliefs and habits your parents passed on to you
- Practice compassion toward yourself and your kids

The Self-Compassion Daily Journal

Let Go of Your Inner Critic and Embrace Who You Are with Acceptance and Commitment Therapy

by Diana Hill, PhD, foreword by Joseph V. Ciarrochi, PhD

Transform your critical inner voice and make self-compassion a daily habit with this powerful and evidence-based guided journal.

Do you beat yourself up when you make a mistake? Are you overly self-critical, holding yourself to unrealistically high standards? If so, you aren't alone. It can be challenging or even uncomfortable for many of us to embrace ourselves with kindness. But over time, self-criticism can lead to increased anxiety and depression, lower our self-confidence, and even undermine our ability to take steps toward positive, meaningful change. The good news is self-compassion is a skill that can be learned.

In The Self-Compassion Daily Journal, clinical psychologist and author of ACT Daily Journal Diana Hill offers powerful writing prompts grounded in acceptance and commitment therapy (ACT), mindfulness, and compassion-focused therapy (CFT) to help you let go of harmful self-criticism—whether it's about body image, career goals, or parenting—and instead cultivate kindness and forgiveness toward yourself.

With this journal, you'll find practices to help you:

- Reduce anxiety, depression, and rumination
- Improve and deepen your relationships
- Bolster feelings of self-worth and confidence
- Reduce stress and boost immunity
- Build resilience, happiness, hope, and optimism

When we choose to open our hearts to ourselves, we are choosing the courageous path of embracing who we are. This path of self-compassion is the first step toward our collective freedom from suffering. Let this journal guide you on your path to inner peace, better relationships, increased well-being, and joy.

Porto, Portuguese Tiles, Dot-Grid Planners, Midi, Dot Grid, Elastic Band, 176 Pg, 120 GSM

by by (artist) Paperblanks

Azulejos (meaning small polished stone") are painted, glazed ceramic tiles that date back to 13th-century Portugal where they were used inside buildings during the Gothic period. Today, we see these decorative tiles across a wide range of buildings, from monasteries, palaces and restaurants to bars, railway stations and family homes. The design on the tiles commonly related to the building's unique history, and the individual pieces often end up forming an elaborate mosaic.

There are countless wonderful examples of these beautiful tiles all across Portugal, many in the original blue and white colour scheme that was fashionable in the "Age of Discovery" (15th century to the late 18th century). Sao Bento Railway Station in Porto, the Bucaco Palace and many stops in the Lisbon Metro are among the most famous sites known for their azulejo art.

The design reproduced here is pulled from the traditional tiles gracing the facades of a variety of old houses in Porto. Ornate in detail, these tiles do not just serve as decoration but represent an important part of Portuguese culture and tradition. Held within are stories of their country and its past.

With our cover design we celebrate this enduring Portuguese symbol of culture and tradition.

Van Gogh's Irises, Van Gogh's Irises, Document Folders, Document Folder, Wrap

by by (artist) Paperblanks

Dutch artist Vincent van Gogh (1853-1890) was one of the greatest of the Post-Impressionist painters. Though much of his work, like this Irises study, is filled with brightness and light, Van Gogh's own life was filled with personal turmoil. A severe mental health crisis, in which he now-famously cut off his own ear, prompted Van Gogh to admit himself to the Saint-Paul Asylum at Saint-Remy in the south of France. His recuperation began with painting of the asylum garden, Irises chief among the resulting output. We are honoured to feature this seminal painting from the J. Paul Getty Museum in our collection.

The Duomo di Milano represents the pinnacle of Italian Gothic architecture. Market Match-Up!

A Spin, Search, and Sort Game

by Petit Collage

Spin to win! Collect a rainbow's worth of colorful fruits, vegetables, and healthy treats from the market. The player with the most items in their basket wins the game. But watch out for the wriggly worm or you'll have to miss a turn!

Market Match-up, by Petit Collage, combines a memory game with a market theme. Spin the spinner to determine which color produce you need to find from the face-down pieces. You can turn over only one piece to see if it matches. If not, you place it back down but try to remember where it is for matching later in the game. You need a good memory and some luck with the spinner to win! A fun sorting element comes in at the end of the game, where kids can set up their market stall with everything in the correct order to gain extra points.

Perfect for 4 players, ages 4+. Includes 4 Market Match-Up baskets, 35 grocery pieces, 1 spinner, and instructions.

HOW TO PLAY:

Spread out the 35 grocery pieces face down on the table. Each player takes a Market Match-up basket.

Grab Your Groceries Gameplay (ages 4-6):

The youngest player spins first. If the arrow lands on a color, your aim is to find a grocery piece of the same color. Pick up any face-down piece. If the color matches put it in your basket (example: arrow lands on yellow, pick up a banana, add to the yellow section of your basket). If the color does not match, show the piece to the other players and return it face down anywhere on the table.

Tortoise Tumble

by Created by Ridley's Games

Get ready to roll with Tortoise Tumble from Ridley's Games!

Impress your fellow players with your tumbling skills as you roll your tortoises across the garden to score. How and where your tortoises land decides how many points you win, so you'll want to work out your best tumbling technique as quickly as possible. But be careful not to land on your back-that would be extremely embarrassing. The first player to earn 500 points is the winner and is crowned Top Tortoise Tumbler!

Perfect for friends, families, and lovers of tortoises, it's suitable for ages 8+, 1+ players, has an average 15-minute gameplay, and includes English instructions. Made using FSC paper and soy inks.

How to Play:

To begin the game, you must first create the garden. Piece together the nine scene cards in any position you like. There are potential bonuses on each card, so think carefully about where you place the highest earners!

The first player rolls the two rubber tortoise pals onto the garden and checks the scorecard to see how many points they've won. For instance, landing on your shell side will earn more points than face-planting but landing on your back scores zero! Remember to check for bonuses on the card where you landed, too. Not happy with your score? You can re-roll twice per turn but remember: your score can decrease as well as increase. And if a tortoise misses (...)

A F*cking Rage Journal

by Olive Michaels

Unleash your RAGE, frustrations, pent-up aggression, irritations, bothers, and anything else that needs to be let out on the pages of this journal! (Seriously, pretend like the journal really wronged you or something.)

Oddly enough, this guided journal is for people who love journaling and those who hate it. A F*CKING RAGE JOURNAL is the anti-journal", filled to the brim with delightfully destructive activities involving ripping, burning, defacing, or otherwise tarnishing the journal - though you can also write in it if you want.

Take on the following mission (or say f*ck it):

- Release your negative emotions - use this journal for some self f*cking care
- Air your grievances - satisfy your d*mn needs to complain
- Engage in stressrelief - you'd be surprised how satisfying it is to destroy a journal
- Pay some d*mn attention to your mental health - stop being an a*shole to yourself and take it out on the journal instead

This activity book for adults features sweary journal prompts about anger, annoyances and other negative emotions. Poke holes in the pages, write down your comebacks that occurred to you long after the argument, stick the journal in the shower - we don't care. A F*CKING RAGE JOURNAL encourages you to use the journal as a healthy outlet for releasing your emotions. But, more importantly, A F*CKING RAGE JOURNAL also encourages you to absolutely RAGE with abandon. Proceed WITHOUT caution.
