Interview with My Grandma

An Interactive Journal to Investigate Our Family History
by Courtney Littler

This unique journal in the style of a reporter's notebook encourages kids to embrace their inner detective! On one side of each page are thoughtful questions to ask your grandmother and space to write or draw her responses. Then when the interview is over, you can flip the notebook over and explore your own thoughts and ideas about Grandma with activities like making lists, drawing pictures, and recording the memories that make your relationship so special.

Interview questions include:

- Q: What was your favorite book when you were my age?
- Q: Who is your hero?
- Q: What was it like when I was born?

Activities include:

- Draw a portrait of Grandma from memory.
- What are your top five favorite things to do with Grandma?

With over 100 conversation-starting prompts and plenty of space to spark creativity and curiosity, this journal will help grandmothers and grandchildren create memories to treasure.

The Jokiest Joking Trivia Book Ever Written . . . No Joke!

1,001 Surprising Facts to Amaze Your Friends
by Brian Boone, illustrated by Amanda Brack

For fans of our best-selling joke book series comes a new volume chock-full of amazing facts about everything from food to travel to science to history - all in a fun, easy-to-read format with hand-drawn original illustrations! Kids will love to impress their friends with their cool knowledge, and parents will be happy their kids are learning something.

For example:

There are exactly 206 bones in your body.
(We counted.) More than half of those are in your hands, toes, fingers, and feet.

Think how cold you are when you forget your winter coat.
Now consider how cold you'd be without your skin.
Your skin weighs the same as four heavy winter coats.

Teen Trailblazers

30 Fearless Girls Who Changed the World Before They Were 20

by Jennifer Calvert, illustrated by Vesna Asanovic

Joan of Arc. Anne Frank. Cleopatra. Pocahontas. Mary Shelley. Many of these heroines are well-known. But have you heard of Sybil Ludington, a 16-year-old daughter of an American colonel who rode twice as far as the far better-remembered Paul Revere to warn the militia that the British army was invading?

This fascinating book features 30 young women who accomplished remarkable things before their twentieth birthdays. Visually compelling with original illustrations, this book will inspire the next generation of strong, fearless women.
