Simon Says Open the Book

“Simon says open the book. Have a look” at this beautiful, bedtime-themed book version of the beloved children’s game. Readers and listeners alike will find themselves acting out the commands as the rhythmic text gently rises and falls, leading to an inevitable, sleep-inducing conclusion.

Emilia Zebrowska is a children’s book author and illustrator. She lives with her family in London. This is her first book for Creative Editions.

Susan Reagan earned her degree from the Columbus College of Art and Design. With previous experience in greeting cards, surface designs, and picture books, Susan’s Creative Editions titles include You and Me and the forthcoming Lights Out! A lifelong Ohio resident, Susan lives in Cleveland with her husband and two dogs.

It?

What is IT? Is IT a friend or a foe? In this modern fable of imaginative inquisition, a boy finds and follows IT, wondering along the way if IT is a monster, a furry bear, or perhaps a wild thing. In the process, he makes a surprising new friend.

Etienne Delessert is a Swiss-American artist and author whose picture books have earned numerous honors, including two Graphics Prizes from the Bologna Children's Book Fair. In 2010, he was shortlisted for the Hans Christian Andersen Award for Illustration and was nominated again six years later. Delessert's work has also been presented in retrospectives at the Louvre in Paris and the Library of Congress in Washington, D.C. Among his many children's book credits are I Hate to Read!, Spartacus the Spider, Moon Theater, Full Color, A Glass, and Night Circus. He lives in Connecticut with his wife.
What to Do with a String

Snag the spirit of adventure and lasso the limitless horizons of imagination to discover all the simple yet fantastical things one can make out of a string—from slingshots to sails, swings to phone lines—in this sequel to Jane Yolen’s popular picture book, What to Do with a Box (2016).

Jane Yolen is an award-winning author, poet, and teacher. She has written more than 365 books, including What to Do with a Box, illustrated by Chris Sheban, and the Caldecott Medal—winning Owl Moon, illustrated by John Schoenherr. The Educational Book & Media Association honored her significant contributions with its 2018 Jeremiah Ludington Award.

C. F. Payne is a renowned artist and illustrator whose picture books include The Adventures of Tom Sawyer and Lineup for Yesterday, both published by Creative Editions.

Also available: What to Do with a Box (HC and BB)
I Am Polar Bear

The polar bear is known by many names in different languages—White Bear, Ice Bear, Sea Bear. It is Sailor of the Icebergs, Whale’s Curse, Seal’s Dread. It is the animal deserving of great respect, the Ever-wandering One, the Master of Helping Spirits, Grandfather, or God’s Dog. Whatever its name, what is certain is that this majestic, Arctic animal is threatened by extinction and in need of human protection before it disappears from our world forever.

J. Patrick Lewis is an award-winning poet, a former Children’s Poet Laureate, and the author of more than 50 books of poetry for children, including the Creative Editions titles Make the Earth Your Companion and Phrases of the Moon. Among his other honors are the 2011 National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE) Excellence in Children’s Poetry Award and the Ohioana Awards’ 2004 Alice Louise Wood Memorial Prize. He lives in Westerville, Ohio.

Miriam Nerlove is an illustrator whose detailed paintings of animals can also be found in the board books Dot, Stripe, Squiggle and Spot, Spike, Spiral published by Creative Editions. She lives with her family outside Chicago.
The Greatest Table

From kitchen table to picnic blanket, sidewalk café to campfire—the greatest table isn’t set inside a single home—it spans the continents, and no one eats alone. So bring a favorite dish to share with friends old and new, and take a seat. Michael J. Rosen’s lovely poem, illustrated by Becca Stadtlander, celebrates the simple and unifying act of sharing a meal, reminding us that all creatures have a place at the communal table.

Michael J. Rosen is the author and editor of picture books, poetry, novels, cookbooks, and anthologies to benefit animal-welfare and childhood-hunger efforts. He served on the board of directors for Share Our Strength, a national organization working to end childhood hunger in the United States.

Becca Stadtlander is an illustrator and fine artist, inspired by the beauty of everyday objects, the comforts of home, and the lush colors and landscapes of far-off places. She lives and works in her hometown of Covington, Kentucky.

A Song

Listen! Can you hear it? In a world full of noise and distraction, the songs that call to us can become muffled, easily ignored. But when we become attuned to the practice of listening, we might recognize something beautiful. Follow along to the song the world sings just for you in this lyrical picture book, written and illustrated by James Christopher Carroll.

James Christopher Carroll is an author, illustrator, and graphic designer whose picture books include The Boy and the Moon and Papa’s Backpack. Music fuels and shapes every picture James makes. For this book, James combined the media of paint, sculpture, photography, and collage. He lives with his family in a house filled with music in upstate New York.

Dream Song

Sunlight, moonlight, / Twilight, starlight. Walter de la Mare’s evocative poem conjures up dream-inducing images of dewy forests, wrathful lions, and fairy-tale wonders in this wistfully illustrated picture book.

Walter de la Mare was a celebrated romantic poet and author of children’s literature. His work, including the poetry collection Songs of Childhood, features themes of imagination, intuition, emotion, and truth that speak to readers of all ages.

Monique Felix is an award-winning Swiss artist and author whose books include Let’s Go Outside, Chicken Wants a Nap, and Where Do I End and You Begin? Among her many honors is the Octogone Prize from the International Center of Children’s Literature in France.

A Meeting in the Sky

Two boys. One dream: to fly. The farm boy lived in America. The city boy lived in Germany. Both loved planes and grew up to be pilots, a world apart. Then one day, that world went to war, and the two boys became soldiers of the sky. A Meeting in the Sky narrates the true tale of a remarkable encounter between two World War II pilots—former enemies who became friends for life.

Rina Singh was born in India and grew up in a small town where there were no public libraries. Luckily, her school library was well-stocked, and she grew up loving books. Rina lives with her husband in Toronto, where she teaches art, drama, and writing.

Jordi Vila Delclòs was born in Barcelona. Before he built a career as an illustrator, he studied music and played the vibraphone in various jazz groups. He loves listening to jazz and drawing pirates.
