On the Farm & Time to Build
by Kate Riggs
illustrated by Fiammetta Dogi (On the Farm) and Laszlo Kubinyi (Time to Build)
These durable titles offer up fun, foundational introductions to barnyard animals and common tools that are sure to fascinate every early learner. Simple, rhythmical text introduces each animal or tool, highlighting the sounds the animal makes and the tool’s purpose in a special construction project. Detailed illustrations, meanwhile, provide a colorful backdrop of a developing farm or construction scene.
Author Kate Riggs is a Minnesota-based editor and author of children’s and young adult nonfiction books. In 2012, her book Dolphins was honored as the winner of the Maryland Blue Crab Young Reader Award for Transitional Nonfiction.

Artists Fiammetta Dogi is an Italian artist who specializes in children’s books. Since receiving her education in graphic arts and illustration, she has created work for clients worldwide, with her art appearing in numerous books, magazines, and ads.

Laszlo Kubinyi was born in Cleveland, Ohio, to artist parents and grew up on the East Coast. He studied art in Mexico and the United States and has created illustrations for many books and publications such as Time and National Geographic.

I Met a Dinosaur
by Jan Wahl
illustrated by Chris Sheban

What is a stegosaurus doing at the gas station? Why is an apatosaurus on its way to the park? After a visit to the Museum of Natural History, a young girl takes the memory of those prehistoric beasts with her and begins to see the creatures in the most unexpected places. Brimming with imagination and roaring with the echoes of ages past, this popular title was first published in 1997 and is here reissued and updated for a new generation of dinosaur enthusiasts.

Author Jan Wahl has dedicated much of his adult life to writing for children, authoring previous Creative Editions books such as The Enchanted Sled and Bear Dance. His first children’s title, published in 1964, was illustrated by Maurice Sendak. A lifelong Ohioman, Wahl continues to live and work in Toledo.

Artist Chris Sheban has illustrated several children’s books, including A Night on the Range, The Shoe Tree of Chagrin, and Red Fox at McCloskey’s Farm. His work has been honored with three gold and three silver medals from the Society of Illustrators. He lives near Chicago, Illinois.

How to Draw with Your Funny Bone
by Elwood H. Smith

If you struggle to turn sticks into figures, then perhaps it is time to seek out a Trained Professional Artist! Illustrator Elwood H. Smith consults his expert funny bone as he leads budding artists through a tutorial on how to draw tricycle-riding pigs, silly-grinning cars, and jousting ketchup bottles. Emphasizing that subjects can be based on everyday materials and that artists have unique styles, this is a workbook that will encourage readers to experiment with their own types of visual expression.

Author and Artist Elwood H. Smith is a renowned illustrator and former art director who studied at the Chicago Academy of Fine Arts. His work has appeared in advertisements worldwide as well as in such notable periodicals as Time, The Wall Street Journal, and Sports Illustrated. How to Draw with Your Funny Bone is Smith’s second picture book for Creative Editions, following I’m Not a Pig in Underpants. Recently honored by the Norman Rockwell Museum with a retrospective exhibition of his art, Smith lives in Great Barrington, Massachusetts.

Night Circus
by Etienne Delessert

One fall evening, a man watches, entranced, as a strange circus makes its way along a road near his house. The clowns look like famous writers, dogs howl off-key, angels play chess to decide who will be their next friend, acrobats with long furry ears juggle letters, lions jump through rings of fire—and so the procession of the Night Circus continues.

Author and illustrator Etienne Delessert invites us to follow this magical caravan toward new adventures as it sets out into a mysterious, light-bathed desert.

Author and Artist
Etienne Delessert is a Swiss-American artist and author whose picture books have earned numerous honors, including two Graphics Prizes from the Bologna Children’s Book Fair. His work has been presented in retrospectives at the Louvre and at the Library of Congress in Washington, D.C. Among his many children’s book credits are I Hate to Read!, Hungry for Numbers, Spartacus the Spider, Moon Theater, Full Color, and A Glass. He lives in Connecticut with his wife.

The Stolen Smile
by J. Patrick Lewis illustrated by Gary Kelley

In this reissued edition of their second picture book collaboration, author J. Patrick Lewis and artist Gary Kelley take readers back to 1911—to Paris, where Leonardo da Vinci’s Mona Lisa has gone missing from the Louvre Museum. As France laments the loss, a zealous Italian watches in amusement, for he alone knows the truth behind the mystery of the vanished lady with the peculiar smile. Based on true events, The Stolen Smile is the spirited tale of a hopeful hero and one painting’s powerful spell.

Author J. Patrick Lewis has earned a lofty reputation in children’s publishing, having authored nearly 90 picture books. In 2011, he was named America’s Children’s Poet Laureate, a post he held until 2013. Among his other honors is the 2011 National Council of Teachers of English Excellence in Children’s Poetry Award.

Artist Gary Kelley is an internationally known artist who has illustrated numerous books, including Creative Editions’ And the Soldiers Sang, Black Cat Bone, and The Emily Sonnets. His artwork has appeared in such periodicals as The New Yorker and Rolling Stone and can be seen in Barnes & Noble’s bookstore murals.
