Everyone's favorite dancer is back! Zombelina goes to school in a new tale brought to life by Caldecott Honor-winner Molly Idle.

The only thing Zombelina loves as much as dancing is going to school! When it's time for show and tell, her new friend, Morty, experiences a terrible case of stage fright . . . something Zombelina knows all about. Zombelina has an idea to help Morty work through his jitters—a big dance party! After all, friends who dance together, stay together!

Starring in her third picture book, this adorable zombie ballerina tackles themes of family, friendship, and school day anxiety. The rhyming text is perfect for reading aloud, and the delightfully spooky illustrations are full of charm and heart.

Kristyn Crow's is the author of Zomeblina and Zombelina Dances the Nutcracker, plus many other acclaimed picture books. Kristyn is the mother of seven wonderfully creative children and is married to a policeman, who doubles as a mad scientist/inventor. She lives in Layton, Utah. Visit Kristyn online at www.kristyncrow.com.

Molly Idle is the Caldecott-Honor winning author and illustrator of Flora and the Flamingo and Flora and the Penguin, as well as the Zombelina and Tea Rex books. Molly worked at DreamWorks Feature Animation Studios for five years before turning to book illustration full-time. She lives in Phoenix, Arizona, with her family. Celebrate a love of reading and join one small reader's search for the perfect snuggle-up-and-loose-yourself-in-a-book place.

The perfect place to read can be hard to find.
It should be somewhere comfy, not itchy-fuzzy, somewhere quiet, not buzz-buzzy.

With sweet, rhythmic text and bold and funny art, A Place to Read reveals the truth about reading books: no matter where you sit, the best stories are the ones you share.

A book is best anywhere . . . a book is best when you SHARE.

What George Forgot

JULY

Bloomsbury USA Childrens

Juvenile Fiction / Humorous Stories

On Sale 7/4/2017

Ages 3 to 6

Hardcover 32 pages

11 in H | 8.5 in W

Carton Quantity: 0

ISBN: 9781619638716

$16.99 / $22.99 Can.

Getting ready for school gets a funny twist with this little boy who remembers to do everything . . . except put on his pants!

George is great at remembering things. When it's time to get ready for school, he remembers to wake up his family, brush his teeth, and put on his brand-new superhero watch. He always remembers to eat breakfast, tell his daily knock-knock joke, and play with the dog. He even remembers to put on his backpack.

So why does George feel like he is forgetting something?

This uproariously funny picture book offers a fresh spin on a morning routine, as a young boy remembers everything but his pants. Readers know what George forgot, but will he ever figure it out?

Kathy Wolff lives in Overland Park, Kansas with her husband and her two funny kids. She attempts to balance writing, mom-ing, and greeting-card making . . . all while trying to remember not to forget anything.

Richard Byrne is the illustrator of This book just ate my dog! and We're in the wrong book! He worked in graphic design before turning to children's books. Richard lives with his wife and two children in the United Kingdom. Visit him online at www.richardbyrne.co.uk/wordpress and @byRichardByrne.

From acclaimed author and illustrator Yasmeen Ismail comes a vibrant celebration of running away with your imagination.

Mommy and Lila are going to visit Grandpa, but Lila is busy playing in her own imaginary world. Whenever Mommy asks her what she is doing, she always says, “Nothing!” Only Lila can see that she's really wrestling an octopus, racing along in a winged chariot, and flying with birds over a noisy jungle. But playing by yourself can get lonely. So Grandpa decides to join Lila—because using your imagination is even more fun when you play together!

Award-winning author and illustrator Yasmeen Ismail blends her colorful, energetic art style with an exuberant text to create this irresistible celebration of imagination and creativity that will speak to child and adult alike.

Yasmeen Ismail is the acclaimed author and illustrator of I'm a Girl!, Specs for Rex, and Time for Bed, Fred!, which was chosen as both a New York Times Best Illustrated Book and a New York Times Book Review Editor's Choice, and featured in the Society of Illustrators Original Art Show. From author/illustrator Debi Gliori comes a soothing, charmingly illustrated story that makes for the perfect bedtime read.

Goodnight, goodnight, to everyone.

Every child is getting ready for bed. But children aren't the only ones who go to sleep at night—so do plants, animals, and everything else. It's time to say goodnight to the world!

This gentle, rhyming book with soft, beautiful illustrations is perfect for snuggling up with at bedtime.

Debi Gliori is the author/illustrator of over 80 books for children, including the critically acclaimed Dragon's Extraordinary Egg and What's the Time, Mr. Wolf?. Full of sparkle and friendship, this sweet chapter book series stars magical unicorn princesses and a girl invited into their world.

Welcome to an enchanted land ruled by unicorn princesses! Cressida Jenkins, a unicorn-obsessed girl who is sure that unicorns are real, is invited to visit, and readers will be thrilled to journey to the Rainbow Realm along with her! In each story, Cressida is called to help a unicorn princess and her sisters in a magical adventure.

In Sunbeam's Shine, Ernest the blundering wizard-lizard casts a spell that accidentally robs Princess Sunbeam of her magic yellow sapphire and her magical abilities. Sunbeam ventures into the human world and finds Cressida, her only hope of reversing the spell. But finding Sunbeam's sapphire in the Glitter Canyon isn't quite as easy as they thought it would be . . .

This must-have new series, launching with two titles, publishes simultaneously in hardcover and paperback.

A chocolate-filled, girl-powered fantasy with a heroine who learns what it means to be a strong, fearsome human (and dragon).

Aventurine is a brave young dragon ready to explore the world outside of her family's mountain cave . . . if only they'd let her leave it. She's determined to prove herself by capturing the most dangerous prey of all: a human.

But when that human tricks her into drinking enchanted hot chocolate, she's transformed into a puny human without any sharp teeth, fire breath, or claws. But she's still the fiercest creature in these mountains—and now she's found her true passion: chocolate. All she has to do is get to the human city to find herself an apprenticeship (whatever that is) in a chocolate house (which sounds delicious), and she'll be conquering new territory in no time . . . won't she?

A classic fantasy with terrific girl power, perfect for fans of Shannon Hale and Jessica Day George.

Bestselling author Carrie Jones's charming, action-packed fantasy series continues as Annie sets out to save her guardian—and her home.

Annie is no longer a Nobody—she's a Time Stopper, one of the last humans who can control time. Now, she's found a home in the enchanted town of Aurora and three new best friends in Eva the dwarf, Bloom the last elf, and Jamie, who might be a troll.

Then Annie discovers that the wicked Raiff has kidnapped her beloved new guardian Miss Cornelia. To save her, Annie has to win the trust of a riddle-loving dragon and search for a magical bow and arrow. But as Annie and her friends embark on this mission, she learns some shocking secrets about her past—and about Bloom's, too. Can they save the day before the Raiff destroys everything they hold dear?

What if a machine could bring back the ones we love? From New York Times bestseller Lauren DeStefano comes a captivating middle grade of loss, love and hope.

In this beautiful and poignant novel, acclaimed author Lauren DeStefano tells a story of love and loss, and what it means to say goodbye.

When Emmaline Beaumont's father started building the ghost machine, she didn't expect it to bring her mother back from the dead. But by locking himself in the basement to toil away at his hopes, Monsieur Beaumont has become obsessed with the contraption and neglected the living, and Emmaline is tired of feeling forgotten.

Nothing good has come from building the ghost machine, and Emmaline decides that the only way to bring her father back will be to make the ghost machine work...or destroy it forever.

From New York Times bestselling author Lauren DeStefano, comes a gorgeous tale of friendship found and fought for against a haunting danger.

Lionel is a wild boy, who doesn't much like to be around other people. He'd rather be a purring cat or a wolf stalking the woods.

Marybeth is a nice girl. She doesn't need to be told to comb her hair or brush her teeth, and she's kind to everyone at the orphanage . . . Lionel most of all. Different though they are, Lionel and Marybeth are best friends in a world that has forgotten about them. So when a mysterious blue spirit possesses Marybeth—and starts to take control—they know they must stop it before the real Marybeth fades away forever.

Pop music gets a fresh, fun spin in the second book of this series about a girl and the boy band that changes her life.

A few months after winning her school's talent show, eighth-grader Lark's star is on the rise. She's making waves on the Internet after her friend Mimi uploaded a video of her singing. A record executive is interested in signing Lark, which upsets Lark's mom, who runs her own music label.

Meanwhile, Lark's friends in the British boy band Abbey Road are still trying to make it big in the U. S. As they're being primed for fame, Lark worries that she's losing touch with her new friends . . . until they ask her to be an opening act. Can she find the courage to overcome her recurring stage fright in time to perform when it counts the most?

Fans of pop music boy bands and powerhouse singers like Taylor Swift won't want to miss this exciting new, commercial middle-grade book!

This start of a new series about a girl and the boy band that changes her life is tailor-made for the tween set.

In this upbeat tale, talented but shy eighth-grader Lark secretly writes heartfelt songs about her life. But that becomes harder to hide after Lark's mother, a music executive with her own label, announces that Abbey Road, a new British boy band, will be coming to live with them while they record their first album. Sharing her house with three dreamy yet mischievous rising stars isn't as glamorous as expected, especially since the boys argue nonstop. When one of them steals Lark's new song and passes it off as his own, will Lark gain the courage to finally step into the spotlight herself?

For fans of Stuart Gibbs comes a commercial, b&w illustrated new series about a wacky school of uniquely-gifted sixth graders.

Eleven-year-old Thomas has always thought of himself as a regular kid until the day he accidentally creates a little bit of magic. Suddenly, he's pulled from public school and enrolled in Pennybaker School for the Uniquely Gifted, where kids are busy perfecting their chainsaw juggling, unicycling feats, and didgeridoo playing.

Pennybaker is full of spirit thanks to its most beloved teacher: the late, great Helen Heirmauser. The school has even erected a statue of her head, but life is uprooted when it goes missing—and everyone thinks Thomas is behind its disappearance. Now his head is on the line. Can he figure out who the real culprit is? Featuring black-and-white illustrations throughout, this wildly fun first book kicks off a hilarious new middle-grade series from acclaimed author Jennifer Brown.

Jennifer Brown is the author of the middle-grade novels How Lunchbox Jones Saved Me from Robots, Traitors, and Missy the Cruel and Life on Mars, a 2015 CCBC Best-of-the-Year Pick. This enchanting story of unlikely friendship and strange magic includes gorgeous illustrations in black-and-white from Levi Pinfold.

Frank thought her summer couldn't get any worse. Her best friend is away, her cat is missing, and the only person who notices her is nasty bully Neil Nestor. But then, big, weird, smelly Nick Underbridge—the boy no one likes—rescues her from Neil, and now, he thinks they're friends! No one can ever find out, or it won't just be Neil who hates her. But there's something nice about Nick's house, and for the first time in forever, Frank feels happy. Why couldn't she be friends with Nick? Soon, Frank realizes there's more to him and his house than meets the eye. She isn't the only one keeping secrets—or the only one who needs help.

From the author of the critically acclaimed The Imaginary comes a powerful story about friendship, accompanied by lush illustrations by the award-winning Levi Pinfold.

It's the ultimate dog vs. cat showdown!

The apocalypse has come, and humans have vanished from the face of the earth. They've taken with them their feeding bowls and belly-scratching skills, so what is a pair of dog buddies supposed to do? Team up with a gang of furry friends to find some more grub! The group's ally, Rat, has found a Twonkies factory nearby, and with it a lifetime's supply of sugary goo-filled bliss. But there's a certain special "cat" guarding the Twonkies, and there's only one dog brave enough to duel him—Apollo!

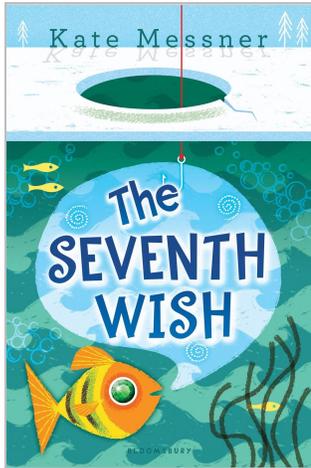

Will the gang be able to train their fearless companion so that he can take on the fierce kitty? They'll have to if they want their dog tummies to stop growling. And if they want to avoid being eaten themselves . . .

Charlie feels like she's always coming in last. From her Mom's new job to her sister's life at college, everything seems more important than Charlie. Then one day while ice fishing, Charlie makes a discovery that will change everything . . . in the form of a floppy fish offering to grant a wish in exchange for freedom. Charlie can't believe her luck but soon realizes that this fish has a very odd way of granting wishes as even her best intentions go awry. But when her family faces a challenge bigger than any they've ever experienced, Charlie wonders if some things might be too important to risk on a wish fish.

Beloved by readers and reviewers alike, Kate Messner weaves fantasy into the ordinary to tackle a serious issue that all too many families face.

When Martin "Murray Poopins" Healey left the Wolfhardt household, all the responsible habits that David and Nathan had developed under his less-than-watchful eye went out the window. So when Myron, who is the spitting image, including the spit, of Martin, arrives on the Wolfhardt doorstep, he is instantly hired to watch Nathan and David. But Myron seems to know things that only Martin could have known, and before long Nathan and David are sure that something strange is going on with their mustachioed nanny. As Myron takes them on wild adventures, the twins set out to prove that Myron is Martin! But what if there's really a Martin and a Myron, and what if they both want the nanny job? Will Nathan and David get a double dose of nannying? Boys and girls will love the laugh-out-loud humor and illustrations.

Hale, who turned double-agent against the corrupt spy organization he was raised in, knows his superspy parents can't come home until SRS is neutralized—and that he and his friends are all that's standing between SRS and their worldwide crimes. So he wants to hit the bad guys where it hurts: their bank account. Hale and his allies travel to Switzerland and find this won't be a smash and grab bank job like they expected. SRS's money is all hidden in secret digital accounts. To take them down, Hale's crew will have to undo SRS's crimes and get to the inside man at the bank, all while artfully evading SRS's notice. There's lots of action, a big fluffy show dog, a nefarious clown, and, as readers expect from this series, all kinds of comedic, high-stakes adventure in this sequel to The Doublecross.

For fans of Gordon Korman and Jack Gantos comes the ultimate middle-grade redemption story, where “losers” are the real winners.

Luke Abbott’s middle school is the number one school in the history of losing. And that’s just fine for him. He’d rather be at home playing video games anyway. But now he’s being forced to join the robotics team, where surely he’ll help uphold the school’s losing streak along with a weird—er, colorful—cast of characters, including Missy the Cruel, who’s bullied Luke since they were six years old. But it’s his unlikely connection with a mysterious boy known only as “Lunchbox Jones” that will change Luke’s life. Turns out, Luke and Lunchbox Jones have a lot more in common than just robots.

In a story brimming with warmth and humor, readers will fall for the lovable underdogs in acclaimed author Jennifer Brown’s middle-grade novel that’s full of laughs, heart, and robots.

Jennifer Brown is the author of the middle-grade novels How Lunchbox Jones Saved Me from Robots, Traitors, and Missy the Cruel and Life on Mars, a 2015 CCBC Best-of-the-Year Pick. Sherlock Holmes meets Ocean's Eleven in the third installment of this acclaimed, wickedly funny, and action-packed crime caper series.

Darkus Knightley is used to expecting the unexpected. An extraordinary crimesolver, with immense powers of deduction, and regularly found bedecked in tweed, Darkus is anything but the average thirteen year old. Despite trying to leave his detective ways behind and wanting to lead a normal life, when his father's loyal housekeeper, Bogna, goes missing, Darkus must return to the family fold to solve the mystery.

Alongside his father, Alan, and his stepsister Tilly, Darkus follows the trail to the bright lights of Las Vegas, where they must once again face the deadly criminal organization the Combination – and this time, all bets are off. With danger at every turn, Knightley and Son will need an ace or two up their sleeves in order to win this game. Who will hold the winning hand?

Rohan Gavin is a screenwriter and author based in London. He is a huge fan of Sherlock Holmes and his enduring love of detective fiction and excellent cars inspired him to write the first book in this series, Knightley and Son. Award-winning author Tonya Bolden sheds light on a tragic moment of the Civil War in a searing, poetic novel about hope and freedom.

When Mariah and her young brother Zeke are suddenly freed from slavery, they set out on Sherman's long march through Georgia during the Civil War. Mariah wants to believe that the brutalities of slavery are behind them forever and that freedom lies ahead. When she meets Caleb, an enigmatic young black man also on the march, Mariah soon finds herself dreaming not only of a new life, but of true love as well. But even hope comes at a cost, and as the treacherous march continues toward the churning waters of Ebenezer Creek, Mariah's dreams are as vulnerable as ever.

In this powerful exploration of a little-known tragedy perfect for fans of Ruta Sepetys, readers will never forget the souls of Ebenezer Creek.

From acclaimed author Emery Lord comes a vibrant, compelling story of love, loss, faith, and friendship.

Lucy Hansson was ready for a perfect summer with her boyfriend, working at her childhood Bible camp on the lake. But when her mom's cancer reappears, Lucy falters—in faith, in love, and in her ability to cope. When her boyfriend “pauses” their relationship and her summer job switches to a different camp—one for troubled kids—Lucy isn't sure how much more she can handle. Attempting to accept a new normal, Lucy slowly regains footing among her vibrant, diverse coworkers, Sundays with her mom, and a crush on a fellow counselor. But when long-hidden family secrets emerge, can Lucy set aside her problems and discover what grace really means?

Emotionally-charged and unforgettable, Emery Lord's storytelling shines with the promise of new love and true friendship, even in the face of life's biggest challenges.

Emery Lord is the author of Open Road Summer, The Start of Me and You, and When We Collided. In an unflinching story about new love, old wounds, and forces beyond our control, two teens find love that changes them forever.

Vivi and Jonah couldn't be more different. Vivi craves anything joyful or beautiful that life can offer. Jonah has been burdened by responsibility for his family ever since his father died. As summer begins, Jonah resigns himself to another season of getting by. Then Vivi arrives, and suddenly life seems brighter and better. Jonah is the perfect project for Vivi, and Jonah no longer feels like he's struggling to keep up appearances. Their love is the answer to everything. But soon Vivi's zest for life falters, as her adventurousness becomes true danger-seeking. Jonah tries to keep her safe, but there's something important Vivi hasn't told him.

Perfect for fans of E. Lockhart and Jandy Nelson, When We Collided is a powerful, nuanced story that will stay with readers long after the final page.

The captivating #1 New York Times bestselling sequel to Sarah J. Maas's hugely popular A Court of Thorns and Roses.

Feyre survived Amarantha's clutches to return to the Spring Court—but at a steep cost. Though she now has the powers of the High Fae, her heart remains human, and it can't forget the terrible deeds she performed to save Tamlin's people.

Nor has Feyre forgotten her bargain with Rhysand, High Lord of the feared Night Court. As Feyre navigates its dark web of politics, passion, and dazzling power, a greater evil looms—and she might be key to stopping it. But only if she can harness her harrowing gifts, heal her fractured soul, and decide how she wishes to shape her future—and the future of a world torn apart.

New York Times and USA Today bestselling author Sarah J. Maas takes Feyre's story to new depths in this seductive and action-packed sequel to A Court of Thorns and Roses.

In this companion novella to the New York Times bestselling Throne of Glass series, follow Chaol in his own new adventure.

Chaol Westfall has always defined himself by his unwavering loyalty, his strength, and his position as the Captain of the Guard. But all of that has changed since the glass castle shattered, since his men were slaughtered, since the King of Adarlan spared him from a killing blow, but left his body broken. His only shot at recovery lies with the legendary healers of the Torre Cesme in Antica—the stronghold of the southern continent’s mighty empire. And with war looming over Dorian and Aelin back home, their survival might lie with Chaol and Nesryn convincing its rulers to ally with them.

But what they discover in Antica will change them both—and be more vital to saving Erilea than they could have imagined...

Caroline Oresteia is destined for the river. Her father is a wherryman, as was her grandmother. All Caro needs is for the river god to whisper her name, and her fate is sealed. But at seventeen, Caro may be too late.

So when pirates burn ships and her father is arrested, Caro volunteers to transport mysterious cargo in exchange for his release. Secretly, Caro hopes that by piloting her own wherry, the river god will finally speak her name.

But when the cargo becomes more than Caro expected, she finds herself caught in a web of politics and lies. With much more than her father's life at stake, Caro must choose between the future she knows, and the one she could have never imagined.

From two acclaimed authors comes an emotional story told in verse about friendship, love, and overcoming unbeatable odds.

Authors Brian Conaghan and Sarah Crossan have joined forces to tell the story of Nicu and Jess, two troubled teens whose paths cross in the unlikeliest of places.

Nicu has emigrated from Romania and is struggling to find his place in his new home. Meanwhile, Jess's home life is overshadowed by violence. When Nicu and Jess meet, what starts out as friendship grows into romance as the two bond over their painful pasts and hopeful futures. But will they be able to save each other, let alone themselves?

For fans of Una LaMarche's Like No Other, this illuminating story told in dual points of view through vibrant verse will stay with readers long after they've turned the last page.

A teen explores her dark family past and the dangerous power of will in this novel from the acclaimed author of The Leaving.

What if...?

It's been thirteen years since Kaylee's mother, Crystal, once famous for her supposed telekinetic ability, got a life sentence for killing Kaylee's little brother in a telekinetic rage. Today, Kaylee's living a normal life with her adoptive parents and almost never thinks of Crystal.

Until... a woman shows up on Kaylee's doorstep, asking to interview her for a podcast about her mother. Was the whole telekinesis thing a hoax, or does Crystal really have special powers? Is it possible that Kaylee has them, too? And what if she does? Is she destined to repeat her dark history?

Another riveting psychological thriller from Tara Altebrando, The Possible is a twisty, surprising exploration of the power of our minds, the power of will, and how our histories define us... or not.

Six were taken. Eleven years later, five come back—with no idea of where they've been. A riveting mystery for fans of We Were Liars.

Eleven years ago, six kindergarteners went missing without a trace. After all that time, the people left behind moved on, or tried to.

Until today. Today five of those kids return. They're sixteen, and they are . . . fine. Scarlett comes home and finds a mom she barely recognizes, and doesn't really recognize the person she's supposed to be, either. But she thinks she remembers Lucas. Lucas remembers Scarlett, too, except they're entirely unable to recall where they've been or what happened to them. Neither of them remember the sixth victim, Max. He didn't come back. Everyone wants answers. Most of all Max's sister, Avery, who needs to find her brother—dead or alive—and isn't buying this whole memory-loss story. This unforgettable novel brims with rich characters, tense storytelling, and high stakes.

Prep school gets a twist of supernatural suspense in this commercial YA thriller.

Charlotte has always been content in the shadow of her two best friends at the prestigious Underhill Preparatory Institute. Ariel is daring and mysterious. Devon is beautiful and brilliant. Although Charlotte never lived up to the standards of the school—or her demanding mother—her two best friends became the family she never had. When Ariel and Devon suddenly commit suicide within a month of each other, Charlotte refuses to accept it as a coincidence. But as the clues point to a dangerous secret about Underhill Prep, Charlotte is suddenly in over her head. There’s a reason the students of Underhill are so exceptional, and the people responsible are willing to kill to protect the truth...

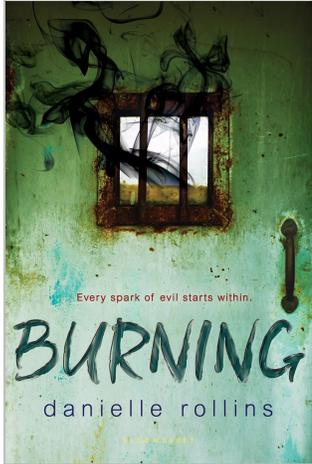

Suspenseful and scintillating, with hints of the supernatural, this fast-paced thriller will keep readers hooked.

This edgy anthology teams up 26 acclaimed YA authors and BookTubers to reimagine 13 fairy tales—all from a “villain's” perspective.

Leave it to the heroes to save the world—villains just want to rule the world in this unique YA anthology in which thirteen acclaimed, bestselling authors team up with thirteen influential BookTubers to reimagine fairy tales from the oft-misunderstood villains’ points of view.

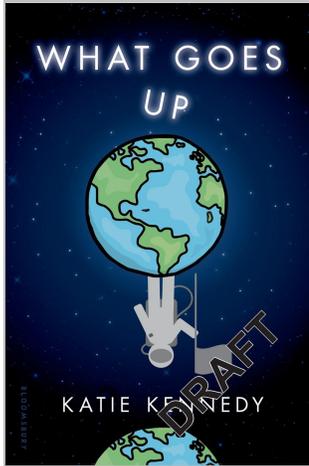

These fractured, unconventional spins on classics like “Beauty and the Beast,” “The Little Mermaid,” and “Jack and the Beanstalk” are stories of vengeance, defiance, and rage—of pain, heartbreak, and sorrow. No fairy tale will ever seem quite the same again!

Contributing authors include Renée Ahdieh, Soman Chainani, Susan Dennard, Sarah Enni, Marissa Meyer, Cindy Pon, Victoria Schwab, Samantha Shannon, Adam Silvera, Andrew Smith, April Genevieve Tucholke, and Nicola Yoon, with a foreword and a story from anthology editor Ameriie.

Ameriie is a Grammy-nominated singer-songwriter, producer, and writer of fiction. The daughter of a Korean artist and an African-American military officer, she was born in Massachusetts, raised all over the world, and graduated from Georgetown University with a bachelor’s in English. At the age of seven, she began writing stories of fairies and pirates and witches and phantoms. She lives on Earth with her husband, her parents and sister, and about seven billion other people. Action-packed and wildly funny, this near-future sci-fi features three teens on an inter-dimensional mission to save the world.

Rosa and Eddie are among hundreds of teens applying to NASA's mysterious Multi-World Agency. After rounds of crazy-competitive testing they are appointed to Team 3, along with an alternate, just in case Eddie screws up (as everyone expects he will). What they don't expect is that aliens will arrive from another dimension, and look just like us. And no one could even imagine that Team 3 would be the only hope of saving our world from their Earth-destroying plans. The teens steal the spacecraft (it would be great if they knew how to fly it) and head to Earth2, where the aliens' world and people are just like ours. With a few notable exceptions.

There, the teens will find more than their alternate selves: they'll face existential questions and high-stakes adventure, with comedy that's out of this world.

Brimming with humor and one-of-a-kind characters, this end-of-the-world novel will make you laugh and think. And maybe swear.

An asteroid is hurtling toward Earth. A big, bad one. Yuri, a physicist prodigy from Russia, has been called to NASA as they calculate a plan to avoid disaster. He knows how to stop the asteroid: his research in antimatter will probably win him a Nobel prize—if there's ever another Nobel prize awarded. But Yuri's 17, and having a hard time making the older, stodgy physicists listen to him. Then he meets Dovie, who lives like a normal teenager, oblivious to the impending doom. Being with her, on the adventures she plans when he's not at NASA, Yuri catches a glimpse of what it means to save the world and live a life worth saving. And he learns how to swear. Prepare to laugh, cry, cringe, and have your mind burst open with questions of the universe.

With its sizzling romance and thrilling tension, this second book in the Once Upon a Crime Family series will hold readers spellbound.

All Magnolia Vickers has ever wanted was to follow in her father's path and head up the Family business. And, once upon a time, she and Carter Landlow were going to do it together. But new legislation is about to destroy the Family's operations in the black-market organ trade, and Carter, her love, is dead.

Then Maggie runs into Alex, who needs something her family is uniquely able to deliver, and he's willing to manipulate her to get it. Maggie hates being blackmailed into fulfilling his bargain, but the longer it takes to help him--and as Alex's health declines--Maggie is surprised to find herself falling for him. Like it or not, if she wants to save Alex's life and carve out a place in the new legalized organ business, she's going to have to fight for both.

The Breakfast Club meets Breaking Bad in a high-octane story about four teens and the night that changes their lives forever.

With cinematic storytelling and compelling emotional depth, critically acclaimed author Erin Jade Lange takes readers on literary thrill ride.

The Rebel: Once popular, Andi is now a dreadlocked, tattooed wild child.

The Bully: York torments everyone who crosses his path, especially his younger brother, Boston.

The Geek: Tired of being bullied, Boston is obsessed with getting into an Ivy League college.

The Pariah: Choosing to be invisible has always worked for Sam...until tonight.

When Andi, York, Boston, and Sam find themselves hiding in the woods after a party gets busted by the cops, they decide to hop into the nearest car they see and take off. Normally these four would never be caught dead together, but when their getaway takes a dangerous turn, sticking together will be the only way to survive.

Tess Kendrick returns in a pulse-pounding thriller about a deadly scheme at the heart of Washington that's Scandal meets Veronica Mars.

For Tess Kendrick, a junior at the Hardwicke School in Washington D.C., fixing runs in the family. But Tess has another legacy, too, one that involves power and the making of political dynasties. When Tess is asked to run a classmate's campaign for student council, she agrees. But when the candidates are children of politicians, even a high school election can involve life-shattering secrets.

Meanwhile, Tess's guardian has also taken on an impossible case, as a terrorist attack calls into doubt who can – and cannot – be trusted on Capitol Hill. Tess knows better than most that power is currency in Washington, but she's about to discover firsthand that power always comes with a price.

Perfect for fans of Harlan Coben and Ally Carter, the second book in this thrilling series will leave readers breathless.

Cassie is writing a letter to the boy whose heart she broke. She's trying to explain why she pushed him away. Why her father got so angry when he saw them together. Why she disappears some nights. Why she won't let herself remember what happened that long-ago night on the boardwalk. Why she fell apart so completely.

Desperate for his forgiveness, she's telling the whole story of the summer she nearly lost herself. She's hoping that love—love for your family, love for that person who makes your heart beat faster, and love for yourself—can save both of them after all.

Award-winning author Nick Lake crafts a compulsively readable love story that School Library Journal, in a starred review, praised as “a genuine narrative exploring mental health issues, vulnerability, and how love can help bridge the two.”

The acclaimed and poignant story of two girls, two time periods, and the one event that changed their lives—and the world—forever.

Now: Jesse is haunted by the past. Ever since her brother died in the September 11th attacks, her dad's rage and grief has overshadowed their lives. When one hate-fueled decision turns Jesse's life upside down, the only way to make amends is to face the past and find out the truth of her brother's last day.

Then: Alia is a proud Muslim, even if it makes high school more difficult. Grounded for a stupid mistake, Alia decides to confront her father at his Manhattan office, putting her in danger she never expected. When the planes collide into the Twin Towers, Alia is trapped inside. There she meets a boy who risks everything for her.
