LEGO® STILL LIFE WITH BRICKS
The Art of Everyday Play
By Michelle Clair and Lydia Ortiz
Capturing the boundless creativity of the LEGO® brand, this colorful book recreates objects and scenes from everyday life using classic LEGO bricks. Transforming handfuls of bricks into minty toothpaste, eggs and bacon, lush houseplants, cans of paint, flashlights, and more, LEGO® Still Life with Bricks reimagines the mundane and highlights art in the everyday, the still life within our busy lives. Deceptively simple but meticulously executed, these images are sure to make you smile and encourage play, whatever your age.

MICHELLE CLAIR is a visual designer and musician. She lives and works in San Francisco.
LYDIA ORTIZ is an illustrator and designer living in San Francisco.

LEGO® SMALL PARTS
The Secret Life of Minifigures
By Aled Lewis
Welcome to the wacky LEGO® world, where minifigures of all sorts navigate life, love, and leisure in miniature. From dating to group therapy to poker night, the lives of minifigures are not so different from our own (minus the noses and opposable fingers, of course). This comic take on an iconic brand will tickle the fancy of anyone who has ever clicked two bricks together.

ALED LEWIS is a designer, illustrator, author, and lifelong LEGO fan who lives in London.

CROSS COUNTRY
A 3700-Mile Run to Explore Unseen America
By Rickey Gates

In 2017 professional runner Rickey Gates ran 3,700 miles across the continental United States with nothing more than a small backpack and an anthropologist’s curiosity to explore the divided America in which we live. In Cross Country, Gates documents this epic experience from South Carolina to San Francisco, sharing first-person essays, interviews, and over 200 photographs of the ordinary and extraordinary people and places he saw along the way. Delivering a patchwork portrait of an America rarely seen, Rickey’s heartfelt and captivating story offers insight into such an extreme athletic undertaking and captures the spirit of our country coast to coast.

RICKEY GATES is a professional runner. He has run in races on all seven continents and has traveled to 47 countries. He lives between Aspen, Colorado, and Oakland, California, with his partner, Liz, and a motorcycle dubbed the Freedom Machine.

NOURISH ME HOME
125 Soul-Sustaining, Elemental Recipes
By Cortney Burns • Photographs by Heami Lee
Illustrated by Mary Mitchell

Renowned chef and tastemaker Cortney Burns left San Francisco for the rural mountains of New England. She learned the ways and flavors of her new home through its people, gardens, forests, and dramatic seasons, and translated all of it into her cooking. In this groundbreaking new project, she tells the story of her personal journey and how any cook can work their spirituality and sense of place into what they create. Organized like no other cookbook, here each chapter focuses on a different element. Fire is all about roasting meats; vegetables shine in Earth; Water features soups and stews; the magic of baking is revealed in Air; and Aether offers imaginative, healthful takes on preserves. This collection comes with 100 vibrant photographs and 50 hand-drawn illustrations of beautiful feathers, flowers, and medicinal plants.

THE LAUNCH OF A LANDMARK SERIES

Created in collaboration with the Nelson Mandela Foundation, I Know This to Be True is an uplifting new series inspired by his legacy. Extraordinary figures from diverse backgrounds answer the same questions, sharing their compelling stories, guiding ideals, and insightful wisdom. The result is a collection brimming with messages of leadership, courage, compassion, and hope. Delivered in lovely, giftable hardcovers with vivid photographic portraits throughout, these books offer encouragement and guidance to graduates, future leaders, and anyone hoping to make a positive impact on the world.

I KNOW THIS TO BE TRUE: STEPHEN CURRY
on family, determination & passion

One of today’s most accomplished and decorated professional athletes, Stephen Curry proves what is possible when passion meets determination. The champion basketball player is celebrated for both his incredible athletics and his humble and optimistic attitude off the court. Reflecting on his childhood, family life, and unlikely career, Curry shares the principles that motivate his work, including empowerment, breaking down boundaries, and unity. For every sports fan or burgeoning athlete, Curry offers a shining model for how to be a team player, a compassionate advocate, and an involved citizen of the world.

I KNOW THIS TO BE TRUE: RUTH BADER GINSBURG

The inimitable Ruth Bader Ginsburg, an associate justice of the US Supreme Court, embodies the power of persistence and integrity. Throughout her legal career, spanning nearly 5 decades, she has been an unwavering force for progress and a leading voice for equality and justice. Here, she reflects on her many years of service to the law, as well as her family life and struggle with cancer. With disarming honesty, Ginsburg discusses everything from gender equality and fitness to literature and the importance of hard work. Strong, hopeful, and wise, her words stand as a guideline for budding feminists and those who fight for justice around the world.

I KNOW THIS TO BE TRUE: GUIDING PRINCIPLES OF NELSON MANDELA

Revolutionary anti-apartheid leader Nelson Mandela devoted his life to ensuring liberation, equality, and justice for the people of South Africa. Incarcerated for 27 years, his enduring faith and rise to leadership remain an inspiration to all. Here, two of his colleagues, Sello Hatang and Verne Harris, share stories from his life as they explore the challenges he faced, and the qualities, routines, and disciplines that enabled him to help lead a country to peace and democracy. With excerpts from Mandela’s own speeches and writing, this book is a moving reminder of Mandela’s legacy and encourages every reader to find and nurture the leader within.

I KNOW THIS TO BE TRUE:
GLORIA STEINEM
on integrity, empathy & authenticity
Feminist icon and social justice activist Gloria Steinem has devoted her life to challenging discrimination against women. In this remarkable interview, she shares stories from her more than 50 years working as a tireless advocate and award-winning journalist. With warmth and candor, Steinem looks back on the formative lessons of her life, including how her unconventional childhood shaped her worldview, why listening and empathy are the guiding principles in her work, and why laughter is the key to freedom. In the continued fight for gender equality, Steinem’s words are a beacon for a new generation of social activists and a call to follow your convictions with courage and grace.

I KNOW THIS TO BE TRUE:
BRYAN STEVENSON
on equality, justice & compassion
One of today’s most influential social justice attorneys and author of the bestselling book Just Mercy, Bryan Stevenson has committed his career to fighting wrongful convictions, systemic poverty, and mass incarceration. Here, he shares the lessons he’s learned along the path to becoming one of the most inspirational activists of our time, including how his slave ancestry shaped his childhood, how a poignant conversation with a death row inmate impacted his work, and why he believes the worst thing that happens to a person shouldn’t define their life. An encouraging road map for aspiring activists and anyone who believes in second chances, Stevenson’s words are a powerful reminder that when good people follow their hearts, they can change the world.

I KNOW THIS TO BE TRUE:
GRETA THUNBERG
on truth, courage & saving our planet
At just 17, Greta Thunberg is one of today’s most prominent climate change activists. Thunberg’s impassioned calls for action on global warming have captured hearts and minds around the world. In this inspiring interview, she discusses the irrefutable facts surrounding climate change, the need to hold political figures and lawmakers accountable, and why every person has the power to make a difference. Immovable in her mission, Thunberg’s story is a testament to the power of young voices and proof that, when guided by truth and perseverance, anyone can create meaningful change.

I Know This to Be True was created by Geoff Blackwell and Ruth Hobday, the team behind BLACKWELL & RUTH, award-winning creators of books, audiobooks, films, and exhibitions which they originate for publishers and partners in forty countries including The Prison Letters of Nelson Mandela and 200 Women: who will change the way you see the world.
STAR WARS: HOW TO SPEAK ASTROMECH WITH BB-8

A Communication Manual
By I. M. Rollin • Illustrations by JAKe

The BB-series of astromechs are as distinctive as they are indispensable. Known for their (frankly adorable) ball-droid construction, spherical mobility, handy tool bays, and dedication and loyalty to their owners, these droids make great mechanical allies—and friends. This sound-driven operator’s guide demonstrates the series’ many amazing qualities—including heroism, resourcefulness, determination, and more—all through the entertaining adventures of BB-8. Readers can press the buttons on the built-in, BB-8–shaped sound module to hear 10 droidspeak audio clips, each accompanied in the book by translation, conversation tips, and funny illustrated scenarios to help readers understand and get the best out of their own droid companion in a galaxy far, far away.

I. M. ROLLIN is an expert on astromech language and maintenance. He is the author of the Galactic News bestselling book Roll Your Way to the Top (But Be Kind Along the Way). He splits his time between Tatooine and San Francisco.

JAKe was born in England, but raised by Wookiees, and is conversational in Astromech so long as he sticks to the present tense. Artist on a number of official Star Wars products, he lives and works in London.

THE SKY ATLAS

The Greatest Maps, Myths and Discoveries of the Universe

By Edward Brooke-Hitching

The Sky Atlas assembles some of the most beautiful maps and charts ever created to understand the skies above us. This richly illustrated treasury showcases the finest examples of celestial cartography—a glorious art often overlooked by modern map books—as well as medieval manuscripts, masterpiece paintings, ancient star catalogs, antique instruments, and other curiosities. This is the sky as it has never been presented before: the realm of stars and planets, but also of gods, devils, weather wizards, flying sailors, ancient aliens, mythological animals, and rampaging spirits. From the crystal cosmos of the ancient Greeks to Tibetan sky burials, this remarkable volume explores our fascination with the sky across time and cultures. With thrilling stories and gorgeous artwork, The Sky Atlas is an extraordinary chronicle of cosmic imagination and discovery.

EDWARD BROOKE-HITCHING is a map collector, author, writer for the popular BBC television program QI and a fellow of the Royal Geographical Society. He lives in a dusty heap of old maps and books in London, investigating the places where exploration and mythology meet.

A Snail’s Guide to Finding Your Own Trail &
Shell-ebrating Success • By Sabrina Moyle
Illustrated by Eunice Moyle of Hello!Lucky

Great wisdom comes in small . . . shells. Snails may be unassuming, but they are also enduring, courageous, and surprisingly sage role models for navigating the mountains and molehills of life. From the minds behind creative studio Hello!Lucky, Escargot for It! compiles encouraging calls to action and important life lessons inspired by the snail’s example. Gathered here are wise words on slowing down, staying present, learning to “belleaf” in yourself, and “shell-ebrating” success.

Hello!Lucky’s adorable artwork and an assortment of quotes, short musings, and plentiful puns makes this snail’s guide to life a seriously inspiring gift for grads or anyone contemplating the (slime) trail ahead.

EUNICE MOYLE and SABRINA MOYLE are the sister team behind Hello!Lucky, a beloved San Francisco creative brand.

By Val Brains

Bold, funny, and in your face, The Cat Butt Coloring and Activity Book is packed with 45 scenes to color in and 20 hilarious activities, all featuring felines and their behinds. Color in lasers shooting from an intergalactic cat butt, or a chill skater cat who isn’t ashamed to hold his tail a little too high. Complete word searches, crosswords, word scrambles, and even pin the tail on the cat butt! This book is filled with hours of entertainment for cat lovers and those all too familiar with a feline’s tendency to show off its tush.

VAL BRAINS is an enterprising author-illustrator with eight self-published Cat Butt titles and seven other coloring book titles. She is also a muralist in Austin, Texas.

BURPS
A Field Guide • By Burl O’Roark
Illustrated by Mario Zucca

In the hallowed tradition of the bestselling Farts: A Field Guide, this hilarious field guide identifies the characteristics, habitat, voice, and “tasting notes” of ten gassy oral emissions, from the outsized Baby Boom to the bone-shaking Surround Sound to the sudden arrival of the Shocker. The attached battery-powered belch machine reproduces the sound of each emanation with alarming accuracy, while grossly funny illustrations colorfully capture each burp at its moment of arrival—and the devastation in its wake. Printed on durable card stock, this is pure, unbridled entertainment for the giggling child in all of us. Let ‘er rip!

BURL O’ROARK has devoted the last 20 years of his life to the study and exploration of the five major bodily noises: burps, stomach growls, sneezes, hiccups, and farts. He lives in North Urp, Massachusetts.

MARIO ZUCCA is an award-winning illustrator.

EVERYTHING SHE TOUCHED
The Life of Ruth Asawa • By Marilyn Chase

This is the story of a woman who wielded imagination in the face of intolerance and transformed everything she touched into art. Ruth Asawa was raised on a California farm, survived the Japanese American internment camps of World War II, and attended the groundbreaking art school at Black Mountain College. She went on to develop her signature hanging-wire sculptures, create iconic urban installations, revolutionize arts education in her adopted hometown of San Francisco, fight through lupus, and defy convention to nurture a multiracial family. In this deeply researched and compellingly written biography, Marilyn Chase draws on letters, diaries, sketches, and interviews. Richly illustrated with 70 reproductions of Asawa’s art and archival photos of her life, this book is both beautiful and inspiring.

MARILYN CHASE is a journalist, teacher, and author. She lives in San Francisco.

“[W]e have all suffered intolerance innocently. I no longer want to nurse such wounds; I want to wrap fingers cut by aluminum shavings, and hands scratched by wire; only these things produce tolerable pains.”
—RUTH ASAWA

This handsome volume invites readers to immerse themselves in the beauty of the forest. These pages reveal secrets hidden within lush woodlands and wild landscapes, as writer Matt Collins and photographer Roo Lewis explore the captivating history, science, and human stories behind some of the world’s most enchanting forests—and the trees and creatures within them. Organized by tree species, here are chapters about the hearty pines in the Tamadaba forest of the Canary Islands, the towering firs of the American West, the striking birch groves of Germany’s Elbe Valley, and beyond. Brimming with beautiful photography and presented in a luxe package with foil stamping and dyed edges, Forest is an arresting tribute to the magnificence of the natural world and a wonderful gift for anyone who enjoys spending time outdoors.

MATT COLLINS is a nature writer and head gardener at the Garden Museum in London. He is the author of 50 Things to Do with a Penknife. ROO LEWIS is a photographer based in the United Kingdom.

REX RAY
By Griff Williams • Essays by Rebecca Solnit and Christian L. Frock

This deluxe volume celebrates the artistic legacy of iconic San Francisco artist Rex Ray (1956–2015). Featuring more than 100 of his canvases and collages—including never-before-seen pieces courtesy of the Rex Ray Estate—along with essays by celebrated writer Rebecca Solnit, art critic Christian Frock, and Ray’s gallerist and friend Griff Williams, this exuberant monograph pays tribute to Ray’s life and work. His playful painted paper collages and organic, abstract forms have earned him comparisons to artists like Paul Klee and Henri Matisse; now, both longtime collectors and new fans can revel in the beauty of Ray’s inimitable body of work. The vibrancy of the artwork shines through a removable die-cut bellyband, making this monograph as tactile and innovative as the artist’s own practice.

THE ESSENTIAL COMPENDIUM OF DAD JOKES
The Best of the Worst Dad Jokes for the Painfully Punny Parent • Edited by Thomas Nowak

When does a joke become a dad joke? When its punchline is apparent (Get it?). This definitive book of 301 wonderfully cringe-worthy dad jokes features all the classics, twists on the classics, and fresh new material, from “I’m on a seafood diet... I see food and I eat it,” to “I used to hate facial hair... but now it’s growing on me.” With original illustrations throughout, this extensive collection will provide hours of silliness for the whole family. After all, no matter how groan-inducing dad jokes are, they will always have a special place in the joke arsenal—and in the family’s heart.

THOMAS NOWAK has never heard a dad joke he didn’t love to hate and is a firm believer that each and every dad joke gets better the more it’s told.

A POCKET DICTIONARY OF THE VULGAR TONGUE
By Captain Francis Grose • Edited by Steve Mockus

Originally published in 1785, the Classical Dictionary of the Vulgar Tongue was one of the first lexicons of English slang, compiled by a militia captain who collected the terms he overheard in London’s slums, dockyards, and taverns. Some of the terms have found their place in today’s common English as idioms (e.g., “birthday suit” for nakedness). Others, not so much, which is a shame. This handy pocket-sized edition gathers the most amusing and useful terms and phrases and presents them for modern-day deployment. Also included are topical lists of words (for money, drunkenness, the amorous congress... ) and many spot illustrations. It is just the thing for handling an “addle-pate” in want of a “nope” to his “blind cupid.”

CAPTAIN FRANCIS GROSE (1731–1791) was an English lexicographer, antiquarian, and noted beer enthusiast.

STEVE MOCKUS is a San Francisco–based editor.

In 1941 the world was at war, and with able-bodied American men fighting overseas, professional baseball was in danger of becoming a quaint relic—until women stepped up to the plate. The All-American Girls Professional Baseball League (1943–1954) was the first and only league of its kind, and in this heartwarming illustrated history (also the first of its kind), the AAGPBL’s story is told by the ones who knew it best: the players! Author Anika Orrock collects a variety of funny, charming, wince-worthy, and powerful vignettes from the players themselves about their professional experiences playing America’s pastime. These vibrantly illustrated stories of grit and perseverance against all odds—interwoven with player statistics, historical beats, headlines, and more—prove that the incredible women of the AAGPBL truly were in a league of their own.

“Clothes, of course, have always been one of woman’s great problems . . . However, with the exercising of good taste, the All-American Girls Baseball League player can solve her problem in a tasteful manner and without great expense . . . The accent, of course, is on neatness and feminine appeal.”

—from the All-American Girls Baseball League handbook, 1943

THE SEA JOURNAL
Seafarers’ Sketchbooks
By Huw Lewis-Jones • Foreword by Don Walsh

In this remarkable collection of illustrated private journals, log books, letters, and diaries, we follow firsthand the voyages of intrepid sailors from the frozen polar wastes to South Seas paradise islands. And we meet a fascinating cast of real characters, from officers and crew to cooks and whalers, surgeons and artists, explorers and adventurers, including: Antonio Pigafetta, an Italian who sailed with Magellan; Tupia, a Tahitian who joined Captain Cook’s first voyage; buccaneer Bartholomew Sharp, who menaced the Spanish Main; and Jeanne Baret, the first woman to circumnavigate the globe. In encounters with strange creatures and new lands, through danger and delight, pleasure and peril, the artistic records assembled here for the first time evoke the thrill of discovery and the spirit of the sea.

HUW LEWIS-JONES, PhD, is a historian of exploration who travels regularly in the Arctic and Antarctica as a polar guide. He was formerly curator at the Scott Polar Research Institute, Cambridge, and the National Maritime Museum, London. He is the author of several books on the ocean and exploration, including Explorers’ Sketchbooks. He lives by the sea in Cornwall, England.

CAPTAIN DON WALSH USN (RET), PhD, is an oceanographer, explorer, and former submarine captain. In 2001, he was elected to the United States National Academy of Engineering. He is currently the honorary president of the Explorers Club.

TRANSCENDENCE
By Richard Mayhew • Introduction by Mikaela Sardo Lamarche • Essay by Andrew Walker

For over half a century, Richard Mayhew has been reinventing the genre of landscape painting. His luminous work evokes not only physical vistas, but also emotions, sounds, and the pure experience of color. Mayhew’s distinctive style emerges from his roots as a jazz musician; his immersion in the Abstract Expressionist movement; his African American, Cherokee, and Shinnecock heritage; and his unique affinity for the landscapes of the American West—yet his paintings transcend boundaries of location and identity. This long-awaited, career-spanning monograph includes a contextual essay and an exclusive interview with the artist himself. It is a richly rewarding celebration of an iconic artist.

RICHARD MAYHEW is a renowned painter and educator. He lives in Santa Cruz, California.
MIKAELA SARDO LAMARCHE is a curator at ACA Galleries. She lives in New York.
ANDREW WALKER is the director of the Amon Carter Museum of American Art. He lives in Texas.

THE UNDERACHIEVER’S MANIFESTO
The Guide to Accomplishing Little and Feeling Great
By Ray Bennett, M.D.

Lower the bar! With gentle humor and genuine wisdom, The Underachiever’s Manifesto is the playfully persuasive pocket guide to living life to the least and loving it. The funny, easy-to-follow advice contained within states the case for making the right amount of effort—a lot less than we’ve been led to believe—and reveals how mediocrity is the key to happiness at work and in relationships, dieting, exercise, investment, and more. Just turn it down a notch! This welcome new edition, revised just enough without going overboard, brings its needed-now-more-than-ever perspective to our new era of fitness tracking, app overload, and tidying up. Don’t you feel better already?

RAY BENNETT, M.D., is a medical specialist in Seattle and a recovering overachiever. He is still guilty of overachievement in the care of his patients, however.

The Greatest Comebacks, Ripostes, and Retorts in History • By Chris Lamb and Will Moredock

As political journalists, Chris Lamb and Will Moredock have seen their share of political quips, witty remarks, and sarcastic pleasur-ies. In The Art of the Political Putdown, they have mined the past few thousand years of political history and unearthed a treasure trove of exchanges, from ancient Rome to modern America. With more than 300 verbal jabs and ripostes from politicians around the world and 11 brief essays analyzing the use of humor in various political contexts, this is a comprehensive collection of witticisms, scathing burns, and mic-drop-worthy insults that will give readers—from the left and the right of the political spectrum alike—something to laugh about.

CHRIS LAMB, PhD, is a professor of journalism at Indiana University–Purdue University at Indianapolis. He is an author, historian, lecturer, satirist, and columnist whose work has appeared in the New York Times, among others. WILL MOREDOCK has been a staff and freelance writer for more than 30 years. His work has appeared in magazines and newspapers.

PUSSWEEK
A Cat’s Guide to Feline Empowerment • By Bexy McFly

Based on the popular magazine of the same name, Pussweek is a parody of fashion and celebrity gossip rags written by cats, for cats. This clever, edgy, and hilarious guide to feline empowerment is full of priceless photos of cats in all their goof and splendor, and features scandalous pawparazzi pics, tell-tail interviews, litter-box quizzes, and other strictly feline-forward content. Pussweek celebrates the feral feline power that lies within every respectable cat who’s sick and tired of being treated like an inferior species. Disclaimer: Not for dogs (or humans).

BEXY MCFLY is a writer, designer, and illustrator. She runs her own magazine, Pussweek, which she created and built from scratch (pun intended). She has lived all over the world and now splits her time between Sydney, Australia, and Naples, Italy.
POLAROID NOW
The History and Future of Polaroid Photography
By Steve Crist
Introduction by Oskar Smolokowski
Essay by Matthew Antezzo

This officially licensed partnership with the world-renowned Polaroid brand celebrates the history and evolution of the first and foremost instant imaging camera system. The cover of the book features the original packaging design by renowned graphic designer Paul Giambarba. The edges of the book have silver metallic gilding referencing the vintage Polaroid film packs. The book features historic and current Polaroid photography from iconic midcentury photographers and artists to contemporary creatives. Augmenting the photographs, a comprehensive visual and written index lists every Polaroid camera created to date. Additionally, an artist index shows thumbnail images of every photograph included in the book along with the name of the artist, the location, date, and the specific Polaroid camera and film stock used.

POLAROID NOTEBOOK
This notebook celebrates Polaroid’s iconic rainbow-striped packaging design by legendary graphic designer Paul Giambarba. This blank notebook features spot colors on the cover, rounded edges, and a metallic silver ribbon marker. The signature cover, the high-quality paper, and the design details make this a unique book for sketching and writing.

GARDEN PARTY
By Helen Dardik

Garden Party is a girl powered, nature themed book on the work of Helen Dardik. Her pen-and-ink drawings, predominantly black-and-white with a limited palette of accent colors, are replicated from her sketchbooks. Augmenting the design, this book includes details such as rounded corners, an elastic band, and a ribbon that replicate the look and feel of a sketchbook. Many of her characters are hybrid girl/plant creatures whose friends include a menagerie of cats, dogs, and other critters. In keeping with the theme of the book, hand illustrated quotes from classic novels such as Alice in Wonderland and The Secret Garden are interspersed throughout. Dardik’s charming, whimsical illustrations of girl-fairies, flora, and fauna create a magical, dreamy world.

HELEN DARDIK was born in Ukraine, raised in Siberia and now lives and works in Ottawa, Canada.

The shocking memoir of a 12-year NXIVM-member-turned-whistleblower, and her inspiring true story of overcoming a traumatic experience and regaining her power.

“Master, would you brand me? It would be an honor.”

From the second I climb onto the table, acutely aware that I am lying in the sweat of my sisters, I will have blocked that out. Both to avoid moving and to keep my body from revealing how vulnerable I feel, I tell myself: I am warrior. I birted a human. I can handle pain.

But nothing could have ever prepared me for the feel of this fire against my skin.

SCARRED
The True Story of How I Escaped NXIVM, the Cult That Bound My Life
By Sarah Edmondson with Kristine Gasbarre

“Master, would you brand me? It would be an honor.” Scarred is Sarah Edmondson’s compelling memoir of her recruitment into the NXIVM cult, the 12 years she spent within the organization (during which she enrolled over 2,000 members), her breaking point, and her harrowing fight to get out, to expose the leadership, to help others, and to heal. This is also a story about abuses of power, female trust and friendship, and how sometimes the search to be “better” can override everything else.

SARAH EDMONDSON is a Canadian actress and voice-over artist. She is featured in the CBC investigative podcast Uncover: Escaping NXIVM and The Vow, the HBO documentary series on NXIVM.

KRISTINE GASBARRE is the author of the memoir How to Love an American Man, as well as the co-writer of the #1 New York Times best-selling Etched in Sand by Regina Calcaterra.
A guide to business and career development on your own terms from Jaime Schmidt, acclaimed entrepreneur, icon of the maker movement, and founder of Schmidt’s Naturals.

Crafting Business on Your Own Terms
By Jaime Schmidt

Jaime Schmidt started out making natural products in her kitchen and in just seven years, turned her brand into a household name and banked a check from Unilever with more zeroes than she had ever dreamed possible—without sacrificing the integrity of her product or her creative vision. Following her growth from farmers market stand to international brand, Supermaker is a riveting mix of inspiration, the honest airing of mistakes, and indispensable instruction. This is real talk from an industry disruptor on how to turn passion into profit, with advice on branding, product development, social media marketing, manufacturing, PR, and customer engagement. The first book to speak directly to creatives who are ready to go from maker to magnate, Supermaker is poised to galvanize the future of entrepreneurship.

JAIME SCHMIDT is an entrepreneur and maker who created Schmidt’s deodorant in her Portland, Oregon, kitchen in 2010, and led the company to acquisition by Unilever in December 2017. Since, Jaime has launched the progressive media company Supermaker, the inclusive investment fund Color, and continues to support the international expansion of Schmidt’s. Her story has been covered by Forbes, Inc., Fast Company, Fox News, NBC’s Today, Well+Good, and more. She speaks regularly at events such as Create & Cultivate, Beautycon, and the Ernst & Young Strategic Growth Forum.

DETOX YOUR THOUGHTS

Quit Negative Self-Talk for Good and Discover the Life You’ve Always Wanted • By Andrea Bonior, PhD

If breaking free of negative thought patterns could be cured by simply thinking positively or doubling down on our self-care, we wouldn’t see such epidemic rates of depression and anxiety disorders worldwide. In Detox Your Thoughts, popular psychologist Andrea Bonior, PhD, identifies the 10 most prevalent thought patterns that make people feel anxious, insecure, and generally just... bad. In this transformational read, Bonior deciphers the psychological research to help us disempower our self-sabotaging thoughts and teaches specific and actionable ways to conquer them.

“I’m asking you to develop a new relationship with your thoughts, which is no small thing.

You learned how to think about your thoughts in the earliest days of your life, so your relationship with them is quite long-term. And plenty of your thoughts, you do want to keep as your companions. And you still can. But some thoughts are deserving of nothing more than you swiping left. These are the thoughts whose profiles should scream “no, thanks!” the moment you read them. If you don’t engage with these bad matches, you need not be afraid of them. They will disappear on their own, because you haven’t invited them over.

The Age of Trump in Verse
By John Lithgow

Award-winning actor and bestselling author John Lithgow wields a whip-smart, satirical pen in this poetic diatribe chronicling the last few abysmal years in politics. With lacerating wit, he takes readers verse by verse through the history of Donald Trump’s presidency, lampooning the likes of Betsy DeVos, Anthony Scaramucci, Scott Pruitt, Paul Manafort, Trump’s doctors, and many others. Illustrated from cover to cover with Lithgow’s never-before-seen line drawings, the poems collected in Dumpty draw inspiration from A. A. Milne, Lewis Carroll, Edward Lear, Rodgers and Hammerstein, Mother Goose, and many more. A YUGE feat of laugh-out-loud lyrical storytelling, this hilarious and timely volume is bound to bring joy to poetry lovers, political junkies, and Lithgow fans.

JOHN LITHGOW is an award-winning actor with two Tonys, six Emmys, and two Golden Globes to his name. He has also been nominated for two Oscars and four Grammys. Lithgow has starred in numerous hit TV series including 3rd Rock from the Sun, The Crown, How I Met Your Mother, and Dexter, and in beloved films like The World According to Garp, Shrek, and Terms of Endearment. He has received high praise for his star roles on Broadway and with the Royal Shakespeare Company. EVERYONE’S AWAKE

By Colin Meloy • Illustrated by Shawn Harris

Bedtime isn’t for the faint of heart—and this book proves it. What starts as a normal nighttime routine turns marvelously madcap, and as the night goes on, this family goes wild. From the perspective of our unnamed narrator, who huddles under the covers trying to sleep, we watch as Dad bakes bread, Mom fixes the roof, and Grandma plays cards with a ghost. And between the dog, the cat, Sister, and Brother, at least three different wars are being waged! Vibrant, electrifying art from illustrator Shawn Harris captures the zany antics of this family’s midnight escapades. A modern classic perfect for read-alouds and bedtime alike, this raucous tale from bestselling author Colin Meloy will have kids giggling their way into sweet and silly dreams.

“This frantic and curious book kept me up all night—but I suppose that was the idea.”

When George Washington became the first president of the United States, there were nine future presidents already alive in America, doing things like working on a farm and studying medicine. When JFK became the 35th president, there were 10 future presidents already alive in America, doing things like hosting TV shows and learning the saxophone. And right now—today!—there are at least 10 future presidents alive in America. They could be playing basketball, like Barack Obama, or helping in the garden, like Dwight D. Eisenhower. They could be solving math problems or reading books. They could be making art—or already making change. This compelling exploration of the presidents before they were presidents—as kids, adventurers, journalists, gun-slingers, and more!—illustrates the powerful truth that the presidents of the future could be practically anyone . . . including YOU.
In this audacious, hilarious, and heartwarming next installment in the award-winning beginning chapter book series from Laurel Snyder and Emily Hughes, the two brothers and their family are off on a new adventure: going camping! Follow along as they take a long drive, have a quick hike, defeat a big lion, hide in a small tent, and conquer the great outdoors—together. There is so much fun to be had along the way—telling stories, fighting monsters, crashing their tent—but best of all is the joy of sharing it with each other.

LAUREL SNYDER is the author of many books for children. She lives and writes in a small yellow house in Atlanta, Georgia, which she shares with her husband and two sons.

EMILY HUGHES is an illustrator (and sometimes writer) who lives in windy Brighton, England, while thinking fondly of her hometown in Hilo, Hawaii.

FLIGHT FOR FREEDOM
The Wetzel Family’s Daring Escape from East Germany
By Kristen Fulton • Illustrated by Torben Kuhlmann

It’s 1979 and Peter lives on the east side of Germany, the side that isn’t free. He watches news programs rather than cartoons, and wears scratchy uniforms instead of blue jeans. His family endures long lines and early curfews. But Peter knows it won’t always be this way. Peter and his family have a secret. Late at night, in their attic, they are piecing together a hot-air balloon—and a plan. Can Peter and his family fly their way to freedom? This is the true story of one child, Peter Wetzel, and his family, who risked their lives seeking freedom in a daring escape from East Germany via a handmade hot-air balloon.

KRISTEN FULTON is a children’s book author. She can always be found with a notebook in hand as she ventures through historical sites and museums. Most of the time she lives in Florida.
TORBEN KUHLMANN is an award-winning children’s book author and illustrator. He lives in Hamburg, Germany.

ON WINGS OF WORDS
The Extraordinary Life of Emily Dickinson
By Jennifer Berne • Illustrated by Becca Stadtlander

In a small New England town lives Emily Dickinson, a girl in love with small things—a flower petal, a bird, a ray of light, a word. In those small things, her brilliant imagination can see the wide world—and in her words, she takes wing. From the author of the critically acclaimed On a Beam of Light comes a lovely account of the life of Emily Dickinson: her courage, her faith, and her gift to the world. With Dickinson’s own poetry woven throughout, this lyrical biography is not just a tale of prodigious talent, but also of the power we have to transform ourselves.

JENNIFER BERNE is the award-winning author of the biographies Manfish: A Story of Jacques Cousteau and On a Beam of Light: A Story of Albert Einstein. She lives in Copake, New York.
BECCA STADTLANDER is the illustrator of many children’s and young adult publications, including Sleep Tight Farm. She was born and raised in Covington, Kentucky.

OVER THE MOON
By James Proimos • Illustrated by Zoey Abbott

When two wolves see a baby floating down a river, what do they do? Why, they take the baby home. Over the moon with joy, they nourish and teach her. And when that baby grows into a child, she and the wolves know that she will be ready to make her way in the world. Because when a child is loved, she has everything she needs. This gently humorous story shows that families come in many forms, and that love is about both holding on and letting go.

JAMES PROIMOS has yet to rescue a small human from a river, but he has written and illustrated many books for them. James splits his time between Los Angeles and Middleburg, Virginia.
ZOEY ABBOTT spent four years working and painting in Japan and now lives in Portland, Oregon. This is her third book.
THE KEEPER OF WILD WORDS

By Brooke Smith • Illustrated by Madeline Kloepper

What happens when words become endangered? Will the things they represent be forgotten? When Mimi finds out that her favorite words—simple words, like apricot, blackberry, buttercup—are disappearing from the English language, she elects her granddaughter Brook as their Keeper. As Keeper, it's Brook's job to protect, love, and celebrate the natural world. Words, the woods, and the world illuminate this quest to save our language—by saving the very things it stands for. With a pocket in the back perfect for saving your own beautiful wild things, this lyrical, inspiring picture book based on true events is an ode to the importance of our environment, the love of a grandparent, and the power of language itself.

BROOKE SMITH is a poet and children’s book author. She lives in Bend, Oregon, at the end of a long cinder lane. Brooke writes daily from her studio, looking at the meadow and many of the wild words she cherishes. MADELINE KLOEPPER is a children’s book illustrator and author. She lives in Prince George, British Columbia, where she enjoys hiking and exploring wild landscapes.
WHAT SOUND IS MORNING?

By Grant Snider

In the first morning light, all might seem quiet. But is it? Listen. In this companion to What Color Is Night?, Grant Snider explores the sounds—and silences—of morning. Ending in an inspiring call to action—to greet the new day with a stretch and a yawn, throw open the window, and fill the world with your song—this uplifting book is sure to help families feel ready to face the day. With bright art as exuberant as the rooster’s crow, and humorous text celebrating the chipper alarm, the rumbling stomach, and the clanking garbage truck, What Sound Is Morning? is a moving and timeless look at the way each of us begins every day.

GRANT SNIDER is an orthodontist by day, waking early to write and illustrate comics and picture books as he watches the sunrise. He lives in Wichita, Kansas.

CAVE DADA
By Brandon Reese

Baba wants a book!

It’s bedtime for Dada’s little cave baby. But Baba wants a bedtime story first, and not just any story. Baba wants just the right book—and the right book means the BIGGEST book! Poor Dada! The delaying tactics of his Stone Age darling may not speed up bedtime . . . but they just might change the course of human history. This heartwarming picture book is a laugh-out-loud testament to a devoted Cave Dada’s prehistoric-sized love for his baby.

BRANDON REESE is the illustrator of numerous books for children. His own adventures in fatherhood provided ample inspiration for this book. He lives in Charlotte, North Carolina.
MABEL

A Mermaid Fable • By Rowboat Watkins

Mabel isn’t like the other mermaids. Lucky isn’t like the other octopuses. But when they find each other, they discover that true friendship isn’t about how you look and that sometimes what we are searching for is right under our noses. In this sweet book, the inimitable Rowboat Watkins delivers another humorous tale about being true to yourself.

ROWBOAT WATKINS is the award-winning creator of numerous children’s books and a recipient of the 2010 Sendak Fellowship. His book Rude Cakes was an Ezra Jack Keats Honor Book and the New York Times praised his most recent title, Most Marshmallows, as “exquisite.” Rowboat lives with his family in Brooklyn, New York.

LIKE THE MOON LOVES THE SKY
By Hena Khan • Illustrated by Saffa Khan

In this moving picture book, author Hena Khan shares her wishes for her children: “Inshallah you find wonder in birds as they fly. Inshallah you are loved, like the moon loves the sky.” This lyrical poem inspired by the Quran follows one child as she grows. A heartfelt and universal celebration of a parent’s unconditional love, it’s the perfect tribute to a new baby or mother, as well as a reassuring bedtime read-aloud.

HENA KHAN is the author of Golden Domes and Silver Lanterns, Crescent Moons and Pointed Minarets, Night of the Moon, and many other books for children. She lives in Rockville, Maryland.

HOW TO WRITE A STORY
By Kate Messner • Illustrated by Mark Siegel

Step 1: Choose an idea for your story. A good one.

Step 2: Decide on a setting. Don’t be afraid to mix things up.

Step 3: Create a heroine or a hero.

Now: Begin.

Accomplished storytellers Kate Messner and Mark Siegel playfully chronicle the process of becoming a writer in this fun follow-up to How to Read a Story, guiding young readers through the joys and challenges of writing a story. From choosing an idea, to creating a problem for their character to resolve, to coming to The End, this empowering picture book breaks down the writing process in a dynamic and accessible way, encouraging kids to explore their own creativity—and share their stories with others!

KATE MESSNER is an award-winning author whose many books for kids have been selected as Best Books by the New York Times, Junior Library Guild, IndieBound, and Bank Street College of Education. She lives on Lake Champlain with her family.

MARK SIEGEL is the author of many graphic novels and children’s picture books. He lives in New York.

BUZZ IS A VERY Lucky dog. He lives in a fancy house inside an even fancier one. His appearance is maintained with the utmost care, and his elevated pedigree is a point of pride. Some might say that Buzz has it all, but is it enough to have everything you could possibly want without the freedom to be yourself? For anyone who has ever felt pressure to be “good” at the expense of their own self-expression, and for anyone who has ever owned and loved a dog, this beautifully illustrated picture book from author-illustrator Marianna Coppo will have you laughing, smiling, and longing for your own unfettered frolic in the park.

MARIANNA COPPO is an author-illustrator who studied editorial illustration at Mimaster in Milan, Italy. Her first book in the United States, Petra, was published to critical acclaim. She lives in Rome.
UNSTOPPABLE
By Adam Rex • Illustrated by Laura Park

If you could have any superpower, what would it be? Well, why not... all of them? When a bird narrowly escapes the clutches of a hungry cat, a nearby crab admires the bird’s ability to fly, while the bird admits a longtime yearning for claws. And just like that, they team up. Pretty soon, their team grows to include every animal in the forest who’s ever wanted someone else’s special trait. But how will these animals stop humans from destroying the forest for a megamall? Featuring bright, comic illustrations and laugh-out-loud text, this is a hilarious and insightful picture book about celebrating the ways you’re unique, and using all your resourcefulness—and just a smidge of diplomacy—to save the day.

ADAM REX is an author, illustrator, and author-illustrator known for numerous books, including Nothing Rhymes with Orange, The Legend of Rock Paper Scissors, and The True Meaning of Smekday, which was adapted into the DreamWorks film Home. He lives in Tucson, Arizona.

LAURA PARK is a cartoonist and illustrator from Chicago currently living in France.
MY BROTHER THE DUCK
By Pat Zietlow Miller • Illustrated by Daniel Wiseman

Is Stella’s new baby brother a duck? All the evidence seems to be pointing in that direction, but Stella knows that scientists can’t just wing it. Further research is definitely required. This sweet and silly book is just ducky for new siblings, fledgling scientists, and anyone who loves a good laugh.

PAT ZIETLOW MILLER is the award-winning picture book author of The Quickest Kid in Clarksville, among others. She lives in Madison, Wisconsin.

DANIEL WISEMAN is a growing presence in children’s books, having illustrated a dozen books in the past three years. He lives in Knoxville, Tennessee.

RAIN BOY
By Dylan Glynn

When you’re a cloud, you can’t help but rain on everyone’s parade. Wherever he goes, Rain Boy brings wet—which means he’s not very popular. Sun Kidd brings sunshine everywhere she goes, so everyone loves her. Only Sun Kidd sees what’s special about Rain Boy. But when she invites him to her birthday party, disaster strikes, and Rain Boy storms. Now the world is nothing but rain. Will the other kids ever love Rain Boy for being himself? And more importantly, can Rain Boy learn to love his rain?

Debut author and illustrator Dylan Glynn’s colorful and evocative illustrations bring all the emotions of the rainbow to this universal story of reaching out to those who look different from you, making new friends, and learning to love yourself.

DYLAN GLYNN studied animation at Sheridan College in Oakville, Ontario, and La Poudrière in Valence, France. Dylan’s work has been recognized by Society of Illustrators, American Illustration, Somerset House, and the Canadian Screen Awards. He is based in Toronto.

This thoughtful keepsake journal is the perfect place for a mother and son to share their stories, dreams, hopes, and fears. Advice, guidelines, and prompts by author Meredith Jacobs and her son pave the way to discussing everything exciting and scary about growing up, from friendships and school to positive masculinity. With plenty of free space to write about whatever’s on their minds and fun pages for drawing pictures and making lists, this journal will open the lines of communication and help strengthen mother-son relationships.

MEREDITH JACOBS is an award-winning columnist and author. She lives in Rockville, Maryland. JULES JACOBS is a student at George Washington University, and was the head of the high school advisory committee for the Obama administration’s It’s On Us initiative.
BARKUS DOG DREAMS
Book 2 • By Patricia MacLachlan
Illustrated by Marc Boutavant

The lovable Barkus and his lucky young owner romp through the pages of this delightful series from Newbery Medal–winning author Patricia MacLachlan. The simple text told in short chapters is just right for children ready to take their first steps toward reading on their own.

PATRICIA MACLACHLAN is a versatile and prolific author whose titles range from picture books to novels, including the Newbery Medal–winning Sarah, Plain and Tall. She lives in Massachusetts.

MARC BOUTAVANT is an internationally acclaimed illustrator. His work has been featured in the New York Times and the New Yorker as well as in numerous children’s books, including Around the World with Mouk and For Just One Day. He lives in Paris, France.

Ivy’s worried. She’s read a lot of books about only children, so she knows that they are sometimes spoiled rotten. They don’t share their toys. They never do any work. They scream and cry when they don’t get their way. Spoiler alert! Ivy doesn’t have any brothers or sisters. That’s why she’s worried. How can she keep from getting spoiled? She could give away all her clothes, but she’d probably get in trouble. She could give away all her toys, but she likes her toys. There’s really only one solution: she needs a baby sister, on the double! Luckily, Ivy and Bean know just where to get one.

ANNIE BARROWS is a bestselling author of books for both children and adults. She lives in Northern California.

SOPHIE BLACKALL is the award-winning illustrator of more than 20 books. She lives in Brooklyn, New York.

KARMAKA
The Game of Transcendence
By Hemisphere Games
From the developers of the hit mobile game Osmos comes Karmaka, a tactical card game of reincarnation and revenge set in a karmic universe. Beginning the game as lowly dung beetles, 2–4 players collect and play deeds in life after life as they climb their way up the Karmic Ladder on the journey to Transcendence. Deed cards can be used to help improve a player’s life or gain the upper hand against a rival, but beware—what goes around comes around! Karmaka is grounded in easy-to-learn gameplay but filled with strategic twists and turns as players find new ways to live their best lives—while racing to reach Transcendence first!

CAT RESCUE
The Cooperative Game of Saving Cats
By Ta-Te Wu
Help shelter cats find their forever homes in this adorably heartwarming cooperative card game for 1–5 players. Work together to move colorful cats from foster homes and the street into the shelter—and then the real puzzle begins! Players must line up rows of matching cats to prepare for adoption and send them into loving homes. The more cats successfully adopted, the better the shared result! With a clever color-matching mechanic that evokes sliding puzzles and tile matching games, Cat Rescue is a fast and addictive game in a travel-friendly cat’s-meow package that will have players of all ages coming back for more.

AUNT AGATHA’S ATTIC

The Game of Getting Stuff, Getting Along, and Getting Your Way

By Doug Levandowski

In this energetic party game, players gather under the watchful eye of their beloved Aunt Agatha, who offers them the best of her vast collection of treasures on one condition: they must learn to work together! In each two-minute round, 3–6 players simultaneously trade glowing emeralds, bone-handled daggers, and even selfless hugs in a fast-paced, Go Fish–style negotiation to collect complete sets of rare items. Easy to learn and quick to play, this lively game full of bartering, strategy, and yelling makes for a family-friendly good time in which being selfless may have its own reward.
