An affirmation can be your most potent ally for immediate self-care when you're feeling overwhelmed, stressed, or stuck in negative thinking. Affirmations are like friends you can call on when you need protection, grounding, encouragement, or a reminder of your strengths," says Dr. Judith Orloff. "For empaths and all caring people, they are a crucial element of self-care." With Affirmations for Empaths, this trusted empathy expert and "godmother of the empath movement" presents a new resource filled with her favorite affirmations to support sensitive people.

Affirmations are powerful tools that can radically enhance the quality of your life - especially when used daily. You'll have 52 affirmations to practice, with space for weekly journaling, organized into eight topics - including balancing your emotions, finding purpose, building healthy relationships, and more.

"Words and beliefs contain energy," says Dr. Orloff. "Affirmations are energy shifters. They let you say 'no' to any thoughts, habits, or beliefs that don't serve you." 2023 Wall Cal: Men to Avoid in Art and Life
by Nicole Tersigni

This calendar is the perfect present for Galentine’s Day, Mother’s Day, birthdays, or for whenever you’re feeling particularly weighed down by the patriarchy (always). Whether it’s the Sexpert or the Patronizer, the men in each painting are shockingly familiar, proving the inconceivable antiquity of their existence. From Tersigni’s infamous Twitter thread and widely popular book, this wall calendar connects us through laughing at the unfortunately topical and frustrating experience of being a woman.

Author Bio

Nicole Tersigni is a comedic writer who lives in Metro Detroit with her husband, daughter, and two dogs. Since childhood, Nicole has felt an intense need to diffuse uncomfortable moments with laughter, so writing a book that finds humor in dealing with entitled assholes was inevitable. Drawing on her experience in improv comedy at the Second City Training Center and women’s advocacy at the YWCA, Nicole is excited to combine these worlds and bring some much needed levity to the fight against the patriarchy.
